TODAY: the Monthly Social is back!

For those of us who do not recall the Monthly Socials that took place after the 9 a.m. Sunday Mass, these events provided time and space to our English-speaking parishioners of all ages to enjoy tasty snacks and good company, to get to know each other, after together worshipping God. Thanks to Ms. Raquel Silva and Mrs. Nerida Fortes-Hoff, you are invited to enjoy anew this opportunity TODAY after the 9 a.m. Mass in the Rectory.

“O Jesus, we adore Thee...”

BILINGUAL EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION and ADORATION after 11 a.m. Mass

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, the Eucharist is “the summit and source of the Christian life.” (n. 1324, citing Lumen Gentium, 11, the Vatican II document presenting the mystery of the Church to the modern world) In awe before the Mystery of Our Lord Jesus truly and really present in the forms of bread and wine (this we MUST believe to be truly Catholic), we urge you to come back later today and join us for the Corpus Christi procession at about 12:40 p.m. from the church to the garden.

We will then adore the Blessed Sacrament in song, silence, and supplication before distributing certificates to recent First Holy Communicants and Confirmandi. Our adoration outdoors will conclude with Solemn Benediction by Fr. Rojas. Thus, Holy Hour will not be held at 2:45 p.m. today.

WEDDING BANNERS (III)
EDUARDO and ANA MARIA POCASANGRE
 [Convalidation, Saturday, June 4 at 3 p.m.]

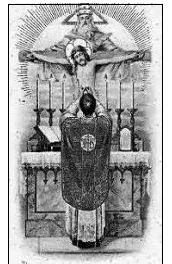

<<Alabemos al Santísimo Sacramento del altar...>>

PROCESION y ADORACION BILINGÜE luego de la Misa de 11h.

Según párrafo 1324 del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, la Eucaristía es <<la cumbre y la fuente de la vida Cristiana.>> (cf. Lumen Gentium, n. 11, el documento del II Concilio del Vaticano que presentó el misterio de la Iglesia al mundo moderno). Maravillados por el Misterio de Fe presente en la Sagrada Comunión del verdadero Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (algo que hemos TODOS de profesar de católicos) y agradecidos por duplicar nuestros diaconos, les exhortamos de participar en la procesión y adoración eucarística a las 12.45h desde el templo al jardín.

Adoraremos al Santísimo Sacramento en canto, silencio y rezo antes de repartir certificados a los parvulos y jóvenes que hayan hecho recientemente su Primera Comunión o la Confirmación. Concluiremos la devoción con Bendición Solemne del P. Rojas. No habrá Hora Santa a las 14,45 p.m.

<<Me da la espalda el Padre>> o ¿Que pasa en Realidad?

Puesto que casi 140 personas asistieron el 20 de mayo la tercera Misa Cantada de Forma Extraordinaria de los últimos 34 meses, nos conviene una explicación de la postura sacerdotal: <<Cuando el padre ofrece la Misa dirigiéndose en la misma dirección que los fieles, indicando que juntos están brindando culto y sacrificio a Dios Todopoderoso, no le está dando espalda para excluirlos. O sea, como comunidad Cristiana, todos se dirigen ad orientem (vb. “al oriente” en latín) en esperas alegres de la venida de Jesucristo nuestro Señor, quien juzgará entre vivos y muertos y el mundo por fuego. En primeros siglos, la santa Iglesia discernió la dirección oriental del altar. San Agustín nos enseña, <<Al pararnos en oración, nos volteamos al oriente, donde comienza el cielo. No porque allí está Dios y no en otras direcciones en la tierra, sino para animarnos de levantar la mente a niveles superiores, o sea a Dios.>> Estas palabras nos recuerdan que los cristianos de primeros siglos, luego de escuchar la homilía, se paraban y se dirigieron al oriente. San Agustín siempre exhortaba la vuelta al oriente en rezo al fin de sus homilías con la frase Conversi ad Dominum (“voltear hacia al Señor”).>> [traducido del artículo “Ad Orientem” por el R. P. Brian McSweeney, párroco de la Iglesia de San Agustín, Ossining, N.Y., boletín parroquial del 17 mayo 2015, p. 3]

When a Priest faces the East at Mass

When the priest offers Mass facing the same direction as the people, to symbolize that he and the people together are offering worship and sacrifice to Almighty God, he is not turning his back on the people to exclude them.

Rather, as a Christian community, are all facing ad orientem (i.e. toward the East) waiting in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ who will return to judge the living and the dead and the world by fire. What in the early Church determined the position of the altar was that it faced East ward. To quote St. Augustine: "When we rise to pray, we turn East, where heaven begins. And we do this not because God is there, as if He had moved away from the other directions on earth..., but rather to help us remember to turn our mind towards a higher order, that is, to God." This quotation shows that the Christians of those early days, after listening to the homily, would rise for the prayer which followed, and turn towards the East. St. Augustine always refers to this turning to the East in prayer at the end of his homilies, using a set formula, Conversi ad Dominum ("turn to face the Lord"). [from the bulletin of St. Augustine's Church, Ossining, N.Y., Sunday, May 7, 2015, "Ad Orientem", by Rev. Fr. Brian T. McSweeney, p. 3]
