Weekly Reflection

The parable of the wedding banquet should give us pause. We like to think of ourselves as good Christians- the invited guests. Do we think this gives us an automatic “in“ with God? Jesus reminds us that what is truly important is responding to God’s invitation. Every day, God invites us to be his hands, eyes, ears, and heart and bring his love to others. Too often our daily obligations and worries block us from responding. We don’t have time now –maybe later-... Consider how you are responding to God’s invitation.

Mass Book is open for 2020

If anyone is willing to offer mass for your loved one, both living and deceased, please fill the form kept at the back of the church and return it to the rectory either by mail or in person or put it in the collection basket.
