Weekly Reflection

“Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, but give to God what is God’s.” This is not a reason for paying taxes. It is a basic guideline for living. Our first concern should be to love one another. With that as a guide, our decisions become clearer. We may have a “right” to do certain things; but the greater law of love may lead us to a different choice. Consider some of the choices you have made. Were they guided by love or by your own interests?

Mass Book is open for 2020

If anyone is willing to offer mass for your loved one, both living and deceased, please fill the form kept at the back of the church and return it to the rectory either by mail or in person or put it in the collection basket.

Starting the weekend of October 24th and 25, we will resume taking up the collection by asking volunteers to use the long handled collection baskets.
