Weekly Reflection

Consider the things that worry and concern you. How do you attempt to deal with them? The reading from Philippians reminds us to present our needs to God to in every form of prayer. Worry can distract us from paying attention to the present moment and it does nothing to resolve the problem. The next time you find your thoughts troubled by worry, try asking the Spirit to help you. Ask for God's peace and the insight to see the opportunities and graces hidden in this worry. Pray for the wisdom to see what you can do and the fortitude to do it.

Please Help Support the 2020 Cardinal's Appeal

Your participation in the 2020 Cardinal's Appeal enables the church in our Archdiocese of New York to meet the now unprecedented demand of services vital to families currently seeking food and financial relief, as well as catholic schools and parishes in distressed communities. We are grateful to those that have already participated. To make your gift simply go to www.cardinalsappeal.org or use the Cardinal's Appeal envelope. Thank you for your continued generosity.
