Weekly Reflection

What qualities do you admire in children? Perhaps you admire their ability to be awed by the world around them, or their curiosity, or their ability to trust. Now consider how Jesus might see these qualities as a requirement for entering the kingdom? Focus on one quality and consider how well it is or is not reflected in your life. What could you do to nurture this quality in yourself?

Dear Parishioners, Is October the best month for celebration of the saints? We begin with the mighty little flower, St. Therese of Lisieux on October 1. Her feast is quickly followed, respectively, by those of Francis of Assisi, Faustina Kowalska, and the Dominican missionary and novice master St. Louis Bertrand. Later in the month we observe John XXIII, Blessed Carlo Acutis, the great reformer Teresa of Avila, and John Paul II. October is packed!

And different as these saints are, they all have one thing in common. Jesus lets us in on the secret in this Sunday’s Gospel. Our lord teaches, “let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of god belongs to such as these.”

Childlike- not childish –each of these great saints, armed with uninhibited trust in god and guileless practice of virtue, stands as a sign of the kingdom. With hearts shaped by heaven, they are models and friends for those of us still on pilgrimage here below.

Jokes of the week Marriage is a three-ring circus: engagement ring, wedding ring, and suffering. At the cocktail party, one woman said to another, “aren’t you wearing your wedding ring on the wrong finger?” the other replied, “yes I am, I married the wrong man.”

A couple was being interviewed on their golden wedding anniversary. “In all that time did you ever consider divorce?” they were asked. “Oh, no, not divorce,” one said. “Murder sometimes, but never divorce.”

If your dog is barking at the back door and your wife is yelling at the front door, who do you let in first? The dog – you know he’ll shut up when he comes in.
