Weekly Reflection

The Pentecost story gives us a vivid picture of the Holy Spirit filling the apostles with the grace to go forth and spread the Good News. That was then but what about now? Do you see yourself as being sent by the Spirit to bring the Good News to others? We are all called to this mission. Some in very direct, overt ways; but most of us are called to fulfill this mission in our ordinary lives doing the ordinary things of life. Consider how you are allowing the Spirit to speak through your life.

A “THANK YOU” from Rite to Life

It is with heartfelt gratitude to all who were so generous in supporting our Rite to Life campaign for the innocent unborn babies. Your generous “egg donations” were beyond expectations ($1221.00.) We “thank you” and thank God for the parishioners of the Immaculate Conception who repeatedly open their hearts for the less fortunate

Keep Them In Your Prayers::

Acts 2:1-11

1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 Or Gal 5:16-25

Jn 20:19-23 Or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

In the Holy Spirit, God dwells not just among us but within us. Known as the Wonderful Counselor, Advocate, and Paraclete, which literally means, “he who is called to one’s side”. The Holy Spirit fulfills the Lord’s promise to “never forsake you or abandon you” (Hebrews 13:5). The Spirit of Truth, with us, forever. The one of whom Jesus said, “It is better for you that I go,” (John 16:7) because he will come, the one from whom we receive consolation, guidance, and who teaches us everything.

On Pentecost, we celebrate the birthday of the Church, that glorious moment the Holy Spirit “appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them (Acts: 3). They heard and understood, more importantly, empowered by the Spirit, they proclaimed! With the Advocate at our side, let us go forth this Pentecost Sunday as ambassadors for Christ.
