Weekly Reflection

Reflect on what it means for you to know that Jesus died for your salvation. He did not ask that you promise anything. He did not consider your faults and failures. He simply loved you as you are and gave his life for you. Now consider how you treat others. Does this awareness of how much Jesus accepted and loved you influence how you respond to others? Should it? What can you do to treat others more like Jesus has treated you?

Happy Father’s Day

A Blessed Father’s Day to ALL our Fathers and a special remembrance prayer for those who are no longer with us and for those who are ill and unable to join us for Mass. May the Lord be with you.

Keep Them In Your Prayers::

Our Country’s Armed Forces, Father John J. Lynch, Adidlid Nunez, Kevin Kingsley, Anthony Blackwood, Patricia Coniker, Heather Brown, Jim Lund, Regina Wagner, Jeanne DePuy, Alyssa Bivins, Robert Huggins, Stephen Moses, Nestor Derkach, E & J Zysk, Joe Lao, Helen & Irving Ruffin, Norman Feig, Rosalie Siegel, Deneje Weyman, Stephanie Pullon, Janet Davis, Susan Giangiacomo, Cesare Silvestro, Brenda Hay, Sara Marie Ward, James Rose, Barbara Boncek, Joe Marranta, Brenda Distel and ALL our first responders & several special intentions.

Dear parishioners,

Like the disciples, we ourselves may wonder, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” God, the master of creation alone, can command the forces of nature. The ancient words of the lord from the book of job we hear this Sunday declare this truth long before the works of the New Testament. In job we read, “The Lord addressed job out of the storm and said: who shout within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands?” whether the lord is speaking out of the chaos of a natural storm or the swirling changes of life, god is provident. God is in charge, God leads, and plans and stills the tempests of our own story. May Jesus, with us in the storm, calm our tumultuous hearts!
