Weekly Reflection

Even great prophets like Elijah had times of discouragement when they no longer wanted to keep going. Today’s readings from First Kings recounts how the Lord provided food and water for Elijah to strengthen him for his journey. The Lord also provides the nourishment we will need for our journey in the Eucharist. Consider how you value the opportunity to partake of the Eucharist, Do you regard it as an important part of your life and Faith?

Metamorphosis inside the lift:

The old village couple was visiting the big city with their son for the first time. The old man watched with wonder how an old woman got into the lift of a multistoried building, closed door and after a while emerged as a pretty young woman. He called out his son in a loud voice, “David, take your old mother real quick into that transformation. Chamber. I would like to have a younger, smarter and more beautiful wife in my old age.”

Pew Cards-Have been placed in the missile holders in each pew. Since we do not have missiles back in the church yet, these pew cards will be an aid for participating during the mass. We ask after the mass that the pew cards be placed back in the missile holders.

Dear parishioners,
