

Growing AS A Catechist

A Self-Evaluation Based on Seven Critical Tools
from The Catechist's Toolbox

Part One

Take this opportunity to evaluate yourself as a catechist over the course of this past year. For each question, choose which “catechist” you are most like with regards to the stated quality or skill.

- A. Like a Pro Luis/Luisa (I strongly agree.)
- B. Steady as She Goes Steve/Stella (I agree.)
- C. Just Your Average Joe/Joanne (I’m in the middle.)
- D. Needs a Little Work Norbert/Nancy (I disagree.)
- E. Back to Square One Bill/Bonnie (I strongly disagree.)

Part Two

1. Which three tools did you evaluate yourself most strongly in?

2. Reflect on these strengths. Where/from whom did you learn these skills or qualities? What did you do to improve in these areas in the past year? What can you/will you do to maintain or even improve this level of effectiveness?

3. Which tool do you feel you most need to improve on in the coming year?

4. Reflect on this area of improvement. What can you/will you do to develop this skill or quality? How can you use your strengths to overcome this area of weakness?
