Did You Know...

At age 13, encouraged by the local pastor, her family allowed her to go to a boarding school run by nuns. She returned home at age 18 with her teacher's certificate and state license. She believed that she was called to live in the convent as a nun. This calling was to take some time, during which her love for Jesus and her ability as a teacher continued to grow.

Francesca took her religious vows in 1877 and added Xavier to her name to honor the Jesuit priest Francis Xavier. She became the Superior of the House of Providence where she taught and gathered a small community of women to the religious life. She founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus (M.S.C.). In its first 5 years they established 7 homes and a free school. She came to the attention of Pope Leo XIII.
