Divine Mercy Sunday: April 23rd

Novena to Start on April 14th (Good Friday)

The feast of Mercy is celebrated on the Sunday after Easter, as requested by our Lord to St. Faustina (1.124) (1.130) Our Blessed Lord gave Sr. Faustina a Novena to His Mercy. It is to be started on Good Friday in preparations for the feast of His Mercy. During these nine days He wants to lead souls to the Fount of His Mercy, in order that they may draw from it strength, refreshment and all the graces they need in the trails of their lives, especially at the hour of death. Our Lord also told Sr. Faustina. "I desire that this feast be a refuge and shelter for all souls, especially for the poor sinners. The very depths of My Mercy will be opened on that day. I will pour out the whole ocean of graces upon those souls who will approach the fount of My mercy. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Therefore let no Soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet.

PASSION (PALM) SUNDAY APRIL 9, 2017

GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Isaiah 50:4-7
Philippians 2:6-11
Psalm 22:8-9, 17-20, 23-24
Matthew 26:14-27:66

Peter "began cursing, and swore, 'I do not even know the Man!' " —Matthew 26:74

Peter was privileged to know Jesus in ways not granted to the other disciples (see Mt 16:17; Mt 14:29; Mt 17:1; Mk 5:37; Mt 26:37). If anyone was in a position to know Jesus intimately, Peter was. He knew Jesus the Messiah, Teacher, Deliverer, Raiser of the dead, and Master of the crowds. Yet, on Good Friday, Peter saw a Man before him standing bound, captive, mocked, and silent before His accusers.

When asked about his association with this Prisoner, Peter answered: "I do not even know the Man" (Mt 26:74). Certainly, Peter spoke words of cowardice and denial. Yet, there is a profound truth to Peter's statement: he did not know Jesus, the Suffering Servant, Who was standing before him.

Paul was privileged to see Jesus and converse with Him (see Acts 9:4-5; 18:9-10; 9:16; 2 Cor 12:1-4). Paul knew Jesus in a way that few human beings will ever experience. However, Paul said: "I wish to know Christ" (Phil 3:10). Paul realized that his human lifespan was insufficient to completely know the God-Man.

Perhaps you feel that you know Jesus personally and intimately. Even so, the Passion Sunday readings challenge you to take a new look at the Unknown One. Humbly bow before Him during the upcoming Holy Week. Ask Him: "Do I really know You?" He will look at you (Lk 22:61), and your life with Him will never be the same.
