BY-LAWS OF
THE GUILD OF ST. JOSEPH CATHOLIC CHURCH
Libertyville, Illinois

The Guild of St. Joseph Mission Statement
The Guild of St. Joseph Catholic Church, as a women’s organization in St. Joseph’s parish, Libertyville, IL provides many social, spiritual and service opportunities for its members. It will unite the women of the parish in a community of service and offer each member the opportunity to use her individual talents. The Guild of St. Joseph will assist the pastor in ministering to family life, church, social and community.

ARTICLE I
Name
The name of this organization shall be The Guild of St. Joseph Catholic Church

ARTICLE II
Purpose
The purpose of this organization shall be to promote among its members fellowship and spirituality and to serve the needs of the Church of St. Joseph Catholic Church and its community.

ARTICLE III
Membership
Membership is realized through participation in a Circle. Members are required to pay annual Guild dues. Individual Circles may determine their own requirements for meeting attendance, and participation in Guild and Circle activities.

ARTICLE IV
Circles and Circle Leaders
Section 1: Circles
The Guild is divided into groups called Circles. The purpose of Circles is to provide the opportunity for women to work in smaller groups toward common goals.

As part of the Guild, each Circle is required to participate in various Guild functions and to assume responsibility for one “Guild Activity” each year. Guild Activities are determined and assigned by the Guild Board. All income and expenses from Guild Activities must go directly through the Guild Treasurer.

As part of the Guild, Circles may not raise funds (from sources outside their circle) in the name of the Guild, and disperse it themselves. All such funds must be turned over to the Guild Treasurer, with a complete accounting of the fundraiser. If the Circle would like the funds to go to a particular charity or specific use within the parish, they may make a note of it when presenting the funds to the Guild.

Section 2: Circle Leaders and Their Duties

Circle leaders are appointed within each Circle. Circle leaders are expected to support Guild activities and their duties include but are not limited to:

- organizing Circle meetings
- attending and making an oral report at monthly Guild Board meetings
- confirming all members of their Circle have registered as Guild members for the year
- communicating Guild information to Circle members

Circle leaders should also participate in any events for newcomers or the Parish and assist the chairperson of such events as required. If a Circle leader is unable to attend a Guild Board meeting or any other required Guild function, then the Circle leader is responsible for sending a Circle representative in her place.

ARTICLE V

Guild Board

Section 5:

The Treasurer shall handle all income as well as all expenditures and disbursements. The Treasurer shall keep records of all financial transactions, present monthly reports to the Guild Board, and submit a year-end report to the general membership. All Guild funds shall be deposited by the Treasurer in a bank account designated by the Guild Board. Only the President may sign checks in the event of disability or absence of the Treasurer.

Section 6:

The Publicity Officer shall be responsible for all press releases to the local newspapers and parish bulletin concerning Guild news. The Publicity Officer is also responsible for updating Guild information on the parish website as needed. Publicity for Standing Committee and Special Events Committee projects may be handled within the committee with the approval of the Guild Publicity Officer.

Section 7:

The Advisory Officer, the previous past President of the Guild shall remain active and act as Parliamentarian, interpret Guild by-laws and assist and advise the current President as needed. The term of this office will offer support through the December Board meeting of the new President’s first year.

Section 8:

The Council of Catholic Women Advisor reports back to the Guild all pertinent information from the Council of Catholic Women.

Section 9:

The Member at Large Advisor assists any Board member on an as needed basis.

All Board members shall assist the President in all matters pertaining to the Guild as needed.

ARTICLE VII

Nomination and Election of Officers

Section 1:

The Nominating Committee shall consist of six members, including three members of the Executive Board and three members selected from the Circle leaders of the Guild. This committee shall meet in February to nominate officers for the coming year. The Vice President, as chairman of the Nominating Committee, shall hold the meetings and contact potential candidates. Minutes shall be kept.

Section 2:

The report of the Nominating Committee, including the nominated persons and applicable background information, shall be submitted to the CBC in writing.

Section 3:

The Vice President shall present the slate of officers for the upcoming year no later than the April board meeting.

Section 4:

New officers shall be installed in their new position at the May board meeting and assume their duties at the May board meeting.

Section 5:

Selection of officers shall take place every year, with each officer slated for a term of one year, with the option of remaining in the position for a second year.

The term of the President shall be two years.
If it should become necessary for an officer to resign from the position on the Guild Board, such resignation shall be submitted in writing to the Guild President. If an officer must be replaced prior to fulfilling the 1-year term, the President shall immediately select a replacement with the approval of the Executive Board for the remainder of the term.

Section 6:

If the President needs to be replaced, a new Nominating Committee shall be formed to nominate a candidate to fill the position. The candidate must be approved by the Pastor. No person shall be appointed to the same office for more than one consecutive term.

Section 7:

Any officer who does not fulfill the assigned responsibilities may be relieved of office by majority vote of the Guild Board. Appointment of a replacement shall be made as described in Section 3 above.
