Lent is a season for repentance. It is a season during which we are called to reflect upon and to live deeply the promises of Baptism. The well and the conversation about water immediately recall for us the Sacrament of Baptism. As the Samaritan woman was converted and sent on a mission because of the conversation about water, we too are converted and sent by our Baptism to preach the good news of Jesus to others.

Loyola Press

Complete the 4 items below:

1) Read the Gospel together as a family. Discuss; below are some discussion starters.
   ● How did the disciples react when they saw Jesus talking to the Samaritan woman? Why?
   ● What kind of people are avoided or shunned in our society today? Who might we be surprised to see Jesus talking to today?
   ● How can we be like the Samaritan woman?

2) Choose one of the following:
   ❑ Read through the Gospel Weekly with your child(ren) before Mass.
   ❑ Have your child(ren) bring the Gospel Weekly with them to Mass and work on it in the pew.

3) Go to Mass. If you have children in PK-6, make sure each child picks up an Artifact Sheet from one of the tables by the Church/Koenig Center exits.

4) Help your children do the following:
   ❑ Children in grades PK - 6: Complete and bring back the Artifact Sheet to the next class on April 5/7.
   ❑ Children in grades 7-8, complete a Mass Reflection in their journal and bring journal to the next class.