SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – JULY 24, 2016

Lord, teach us to Pray...

It is not uncommon for people to quip: “When I pray, I never ask for anything, because I don’t want to appear selfish or demanding in the sight of God.” But in reality, when we do pray, most of the time we do ask God for something. And there is really nothing wrong with that. After all, we are children of God and children are for the most part, very dependent. With that said, when we approach Our Heavenly Father in prayer, we should ask for His assistance. It is a great tragedy that many people do not approach God in prayer. The feel that they can go through life on their own terms without calling upon the loving God. All around us is sadness and destruction that is the end-product of a world that has divorced itself from the love of Jesus.

People may be afraid to petition God in prayer because they may fear that their prayers may not be answered, so to speak. All prayer is answered, but perhaps not according to our will, but the will of God, who knows what is truly best for us. There is a story of a priest who was very close to his sister, and when his sister was diagnosed with terminal cancer, he prayed and prayed that she would be healed. But she only got worse, and died at the age of forty-four, leaving a husband and two young daughters as well as grief-stricken parents and three siblings. The prayers of this priest and his family were not answered in the way in which they would have preferred, but in a grace-filled way, God gave them all an opportunity to share in the sufferings of the Crucified One. As a result, they certainly appeared to become more attuned to the sadness of those who suffered similar losses, and to the best of their ability, honed their sense of compassion. In the words of Blessed John Henry Newman upon the death of his dear friend, Father Ambrose Saint John, “There are wounds of the spirit that never heal,” but faith and trust in God’s love and providence softens any loss. Imagine what it would be like to face life’s suffering and contradictions without prayer or faith? Unimaginable sadness and even despair!

Humility and trust is necessary for conversation and friendship with Our Divine Lord. In a homily given on July 27, 1980, Saint John Paul II shared the fruits of his own contemplation in the following words:

To learn to pray means ‘to learn the Father’. If we learn the ‘Father’ reality in the full sense of the word, in its full dimension, we have learned everything…to learn who the Father is means learning what absolute trust is. To learn the Father means acquiring the certainty that he absolutely cannot refuse anything. This all said in today’s Gospel (Luke 11: 1-13). He does not refuse you even when everything, materially and psychologically, seems to indicate refusal. He never refuses you.

Be not afraid…to petition God for assistance in prayer!

-Fr. Michael P. Morris

REGINA COELI RELIGIOUS EDUCATION - 229-9139.

THIS IS GOING TO BE THE YEAR YET!!

Don’t let your children miss out on this fantastic opportunity for Religious Education here at Regina Coeli, as we continue to support the great work of faith you as parents have begun in your children! We are so happy to have all of our catechists and volunteers returning in September as well as adding a few new people to our list.

Families with children entering Kindergarten or First Grade may register their child/children for Religious Education by calling the Faith Formation Office at 229-9139 or sending an e-mail to Mrs. Kathie Depew at mrskdepew@reginacoelihp.org. Children must be pre-registered each year. If you have not yet sent in your registration forms, please do so. Late entries affect the number of catechists needed as well as supplies for classes. Please call to make financial arrangements if needed.

We have great plans for our All Saints Celebration in November and have something new for everyone during Advent! Yes, the Holiday Penny Social will be back as well as a Paint & Sip Party. Our FAST Team will be traveling to the Shrine of Martyrs and St. Kateri Shrine in October and that’s just the beginning of the program year. Please check our web site and continue reading the bulletin to find out about our events and activities.
