"From the Desk of Father Jonathan"

As many of you already know, this month we are saying goodbye to two great priests who have been in residence at Our Lady of Mt Carmel for the last two years while they did graduate studies at Fordham. Fr Taemooon left last week to do mission work in China and Fr Salty leaves in about ten days to return to the Philippines to be chaplain at a very large hospital.

Please join me in thanking these great priests for their service to our parish and praying for their new assignments. Fathers, we came to know and love you. Thank you for who you are and what you did for our parish!!

I am happy to announce that, as of this week, we have a new priest living with us and serving the parish part-time. His name is Fr Livinus Anweting. He is from Nigeria and is here in New York studying his doctorate in religious education at Fordham. I have come to appreciate Livinus greatly as a man and as a priest in the short time I have known him and I have no doubt he will become a beloved member of our family very soon!

When you see Fr Livinus, please go up to him and introduce yourselves. Fr Livinus' English is excellent and he has told me he is looking forward to studying Spanish. Let's teach him Italian while he is at it!!

Finally, I must say that I'm looking forward to celebrating with all of you the Feast of St Anthony. The feast begins Wednesday of this week. I am very appreciative of Frank Franz who has been our point person for the many aspects of the preparation. And he has done all of this work pro-bono.

Fr. Jonathan

CORPUS DOMINI

"Il pane degli angeli diventa pane degli uomini"

REFLECTING ON GOD’S WORD
Sunday Gospel: Mark 14: 12-16. 22-26

Today is Corpus Christi, the feast of the Eucharist, a celebration that dates back to the thirteenth century. In some ways, every Sunday is a feast of the Eucharist. In the last century attention to Eucharistic devotions declined, while more people received frequent Communion. Recent efforts to revitalize adoration of Jesus in the Eucharist through Perpetual Adoration, Corpus Christi celebrations, and Eucharistic Congresses have brought us back into balance. At Mass, when we receive Communion we are honoring and celebrating the precious gift of the Lord’s own Body and Blood.

Communion is a fulfillment of Christ’s promise to be always with us. And Jesus in the Eucharist always requires a response from us. At the end of every Mass we are sent forth to love and serve the Lord. He gives us his very self—the greatest gift of all—so that we can go into the world and give in return.

Living Stewardship Now

“Lord Jesus Christ, we worship you living among us in the sacrament of your body and blood. May we offer to our Father in heaven a solemn pledge of undivided love. May we offer to our brothers and sisters a life poured out in loving service of that kingdom where you live with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever”

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

All men of the parish are invited to join the members of the Holy Name Society at their monthly Corporate Communion Mass next Sunday, June 14, 2015, at 8:30 a.m. and the meeting after Mass, in the Monsignor Ruvo Meeting Room, 2410 Hughes Avenue.

There will be a review from My Catholic Faith on Our Lord Jesus Christ; The Incarnation and The Nativity, followed by a brief meeting. Coffee and buns will be served. There will be no meetings in July and August. Members will attend the 8:30 a.m. Sunday Corporate Communion Masses on July 12, 2015 and August 9, 2015.

SAINT ANTHONY’S FEAST 2015

Volunteers are needed from Wednesday, June 10th until Sunday, June 14th. The Giglio comes on Saturday, June 13th from 4pm - 6pm. Any help you can give would be much appreciated. If you would like to carry the Giglio you must be 18 years or older. Please contact the Parish Office.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIO
Vangelo della Domenica: Marco 14: 12-16. 22-26

Gesù ci ha promesso di stare con noi fino alla fine del mondo (Mt 28,20). Egli ha mantenuto la sua parola in molti modi. Egli è con noi nella sua parola, che è sempre una parola viva e santa, che conduce al Padre chi ad essa si affida. Egli è presente, ancora di più, nel sacramento del suo corpo e del suo sangue. E ciò merita certo una festa. Questo sacramento ci colma, innanzi tutto perché fa arrivare fino a noi l’“incarnazione” del Verbo divino: Dio continua a venire per restare. Non ci abbandonerà più. In secondo luogo, questo sacramento ci nutre: alimenta in noi quella vita divina che è la nostra vera vita, poiché è eterna. Questo sacramento, infine, ci fa vedere, sotto forma di pane e di vino, colui che gli apostoli hanno visto, ma, proprio come Gesù di Nazaret non era visto da tutti come il Messia, il sacramento del suo corpo e del suo sangue non convince tutti. Per chi si ferma alle apparenze, tale sacramento non costituisce una prova, poiché ciò che si vede non basta. Infatti si vede solo ciò che si lascia vedere. Per il credente invece, cioè per chi si lascia raggiungere dall’amore di Dio, questo sacramento è il più grande fra i segni, il segno che mette in comunione con Gesù stesso. Il credente è da esso trasfigurato, il suo peccato è purificato, grazie ad esso pregusta il banchetto promesso: quello delle nozze del Figlio.

Vivere la Parola Di Dio

“In pane trasformaci, o Padre, per il sacramento di pace: un Pane, uno Spirito, un Corpo, la Chiesa una-santa, o Signore”

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Marcos 14: 12-16. 22-26

Hoy es Corpus Christi, la fiesta de la Eucaristía, una celebración que data del siglo trece. De cierto modo cada domingo es una fiesta de la Eucaristía. Durante el siglo pasado las devociones eucarísticas disminuyeron mientras que más personas recibían la comunión con más frecuencia. Los esfuerzos recientes para revitalizar la adoración a Jesús en la Eucaristía por medio de la adoración perpetua, las celebraciones del Corpus Christi y los congresos eucarísticos han llegado a lograr un equilibrio. Cuando recibimos la comunión en la Misa honramos y celebramos el precioso don del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo.

La comunión es el cumplimiento de la promesa que nos hizo el Señor de quedarse siempre entre nosotros.

Y Jesús en la Eucaristía siempre exige una respuesta de nuestra parte. Al final de cada Misa se nos envía para amar y servir a Dios. Él se nos ha entregado en el mayor de todos los dones a fin de que, a su vez, nosotros podamos entregárselo al mundo.

Viviendo la Palabra de Dios

“Señor nuestro, Jesucristo, que en este sacramento admirable nos dejaste el memorial de tu pasión, concédenos venerar de tal modo los sagrados misterios de tu Cuerpo y de tu Sangre, que experimentemos constantemente en nosotros el fruto de tu redención”

School Blog--Sunday, June 7th

As the school year winds down and as we prepare to enter into the summer months, it is a great time for our community members to see the wonderful improvements and strides made to the school. In the spirit of keeping the school a part of the heart of this community, I invite you to make an appointment to tour the building or simply to stop by to chat with me about our exciting future. There is no better time to do this than during this month – the month dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Come to see how the heart of Christ is alive and beating with the service work of the children, the dedication to our Catholic values, and the desire on the part of all to keep Mount Carmel the least best kept secret in the Bronx! Also, please mark your calendars for a wonderful event on June 27th, when the school will embark upon a board fundraiser at Pasquale Rigoletto Restaurant for Arthur Avenue Day! Tickets are $65 per person for tastings and tidbits. There will be nice items upon which to bid, ranging from gift baskets, tickets to sports events, and student-created artwork and service projects! Please find more information below! Hope to see you all there to keep our school strong! In the meantime, I wish you a blessed first week in June and a holy Feast of Corpus Christi!

In Christ, John T. Riley
