From the Desk of Father Jonathan

Happy Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel!!

I look forward to greeting many of you at our barbecue on Belmont Ave. (church parking lot) beginning at 2:30pm and ending with our Procession at 5:00pm.

We celebrate not only our parish patroness, but also what Our Lady of Mt. Carmel has been for Italian immigrants who have honored her in their new homes around the world.

With this in mind, I thought I would include here a simple explanation of the origin of the devotion to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel and the "brown scapular" which came from it.

The Scapular was given from Our Lady of Mount Carmel to St. Simon Stock who was the Prior General of the Carmelite order at the time of the revelation on July 16th, 1251. The Order of Carmel was enduring difficulties, and he prayed fervently to Our Lady for help. At this prayer, Our Lady appeared to him, holding the Brown Scapular in her hands, saying to him, "This will be the sign of the privilege that I have obtained for thee and for the children of Carmel; whoever dies clothed with this habit will be preserved from the eternal flames"

All the baptized may receive the scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. We are happy to provide a "Brown Scapular" to anyone who would like. You can get one in our parish office.

God bless,
Father Jonathan

REFLECTING ON GOD'S WORDSunday Gospel: Luke 10, 38-42

Poor Martha. She complains to Jesus that her sister has left her with all the housework. Parents, caregivers, and restaurant workers, you know you can be run off your feet. Extra people makes more work. In Jesus' time it was unthinkable for a woman to sit as a disciple, so Martha is understandably irritated. "Martha," says Jesus gently, "you are anxious and worried about many things" (Luke 10:41). Mary's choice, to sit at Jesus' feet, shows that she sees how important it is to listen while Jesus is still with them. Martha knows who Jesus is (John 11:27), but forgets amid hostess duties. This is like what we do even now. We complain at Mass: the choir is too loud, the homily too long, altar servers are not reverent, people talk too much before Mass. When such details disrupt our attention we become Marthas.

We are here to be Mary's, focused on the Lord. Let's give him our complete attention and our profoundest thanks.

Living Stewardship Now

Develop the habit of thanking people whose work often goes unnoticed, such as supermarket cashiers, postal and delivery people, office cleaners, and fast-food servers.

RIFLESSIONE SULLA PAROLA DI DIOVangelo della Domenica: Luca 10, 38-42

I testi biblici che ci riportano il messaggio di questa domenica (la prima lettura e il Vangelo) ci insegnano che il Dio della Trinità ama recarsi di tanto in tanto dagli uomini, perché la sua presenza è un onore e una benedizione. Al tempo dei patriarchi, si reca da Abramo e promette un figlio a Sara che non ne ha ancora. Gesù, da parte sua, esalta due donne nubili, Maria e Marta, onorandole della sua visita e della sua parola. Il racconto di questa visita ci mostra che si deve manifestare a Gesù un vero rispetto. Il Dio della Trinità oggi continua a recarsi presso gli uomini. Questo noi la chiamiamo visita. Spesso, ci rendiamo conto della venuta di Dio solo dopo la sua visita.

In questo giorno, il nostro Signore e Salvatore ci invita a recarci da lui. Egli è il sacerdote, l'annunciatore e l'ospite di questa festa liturgica. Gioiamo di questo onore, ascoltiamo la sua parola con attenzione e festeggiamo con lui la comunione di oggi con atteggiamento di venerazione. Ma soprattutto prendiamo a cuore quello che lui ci dice: è colui che si impegna della sua parola e vive secondo essa che gli manifesta il più grande rispetto.

REFLEXIONEMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS
Evangelio del Domingo: Lucas 10, 38-42

Pobre Marta. Se queja ante Jesús de que su hermana la ha dejado con todos los quehaceres del hogar. Ustedes, padres y madres, personas que cuidan de un enfermo, trabajadores de restaurantes; ustedes saben bien lo que es estar en un constante ir y venir. Cuantas más personas, más trabajo. En los tiempos de Jesús era inimaginable que una mujer se sentara a escuchar como discípula, por eso la irritación de Marta es comprensible. Mas, Jesús le dice: “Marta, muchas cosas te preocupan y te inquietan” (Lucas 10:41). La opción que hace María de sentarse a los pies de Jesús demuestra que ella ve la importancia de escuchar a Jesús mientras todavía está entre ellas. Marta sabe quién es Jesús (Juan 11:27), pero se le olvida en medio de sus ocupaciones. Esto se parece a lo que hacemos nosotros, aun hoy en día cuando nos quejamos en la Misa: el coro estuvo muy alto, la homilía fue muy larga, los servidores del altar no demuestran respeto, la gente habla mucho antes de la Misa.

Cuando tales detalles distraen nuestra atención nos convertimos en Martas. Estamos aquí para ser Marías, con nuestra atención puesta del todo en el Señor y nuestro corazón en una profunda acción de gracias.

Viviendo la Palabra de Dios

Haz el hábito de darle las gracias a aquellas personas cuyo trabajo a menudo pasa inadvertido, como cajeras en los supermercados, los carteros y los deliveryman.
