To my friends at the UGA Catholic Center,

As the prophet Qohelet so memorably reminds us, there is for everything a season. I write to tell you about a new season in my life. I have requested and received permission to retire, or, more precisely, semi-retire. Thus, I will be moving to our friary in St. Petersburg, Florida. Originally developed as a retirement friary, St. Anthony's has now become a ministerial center for friars working in that area of Florida. I will continue to be active liturgically but I am looking forward to cultivating and living a more contemplative style of life. St. Petersburg seems to be the best place for this, although my dermatologist might disagree.

I plan to prepare for this change by making a 30 day silent retreat shaped by the spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. I will be spending the month of July at the Jesuit retreat house in Gloucester, MA. I look forward to this great opportunity to deepen my prayerful awareness of God's providential care in my life.

This past year of ministering among you has been at once grace filled and challenging. Some of my physical issues, I believe, prevented me from being present for this community in a more generous and attentive way. It is sobering to come to limitation, but for the enthusiastic support I received here, I am deeply appreciative.

May the Holy Spirit who filled the upper room in Jerusalem continue to enliven this place of worship and service. As I leave the Catholic Center on the weekend of June 16-17, I am proud to be a part of the 60 year tradition of Franciscan service to Athens.

Warmly in Christ,

Fr. Bill

With Gratitude...

Thank you to all those who helped with the graduation festivities here at the Catholic Center. Those who decorated and helped with the brunch, thank you for the blessing of your time and talent. To the students who received awards, congratulations and the best of luck for the future. The world will be a better place because of your presence and your gifts. A very special thank you to David Briones. David has been the backbone of the Campus Ministry program here at UGA for the past number of years. The words of thanks from the students and the parents showed the impact you have had on their lives. The gift of your presence with the students and your leadership with the Religious Education program will continue on in the hearts and lives of many. Blessings on all you will accomplish in the future.
