FRANCISCAN FRIARS
HOLY NAME PROVINCE

FRIARS TO GATHER MAY 29 FOR EXTRAORDINARY CHAPTER

Close to 200 friars of Holy Name Province are gathering next week for an Extraordinary Chapter to vote on whether or not Holy Name Province should join with five other US provinces to form one new province. On May 30, the friars of Holy Name as well as members of five other OFM provinces in the U.S. will vote on whether to unify. The participating provinces are Assumption BVM, headquartered in Wisconsin, Our Lady of Guadalupe in New Mexico, Sacred Heart in Missouri, St. Barbara in California and St. John the Baptist in Ohio. The outcome of the vote will be shared with the public via a post on www.USFranciscans.org. Fr. Frank and Fr. Bill ask for your prayers for all the friars next week as they engage, pray and discern the future as Franciscans here in the United States.

OUTREACH FUNDRAISING NEWS

The Vince and Barbara Dooley Catholic Center Golf Tournament has been a tremendously successful fundraiser for over 15 years thanks to the generous sponsorship of Vince and Barbara Dooley and the dedicated efforts of our many volunteers. The Golf Tournament has been a central source of funding for both the college students' Alternative Spring Break trips along with other outreach programs at the Catholic Center. Major fundraisers like the golf tournament and the 5K Human Race require a huge effort on the part of those who make them happen, and our faith community has an abundance of those willing to help make these events successful. A Catholic Center Fundraising Committee is being formed to both support existing fundraising events and to explore opportunities for other events like the Golf Tournament that bring our community together while raising money for our outreach efforts. So, while the golf tournament will take a hiatus in 2018, stay tuned for news on upcoming events that will allow our Catholic Center community to come together in fellowship for a good cause...definitely a WIN-WIN! (Spoiler alert-Bunco may be returning)
