

THE CATHOLIC CENTER
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

THE CATHOLIC CENTER WELCOMES
ANGIE HALL,
CATHOLIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION
COORDINATOR

Angie was born and raised in Akron, Ohio and studied marketing at Bowling Green State University. While in college, Angie was very active at her university parish and Newman Center. It was there that she deepened in her relationship with God and took ownership of learning more about the Catholic faith. After graduation, she did a year of post-graduate service through the Archdiocese of Chicago with Amate House. Through this program, Angie was in an intentional faith community on the south side of Chicago that was focused on living in solidarity with the poor. She also served full time at Girls in the Game, a non-profit dedicated to teaching girls about sports, health, and leadership through after school programs. Afterwards, Angie served as a missionary with SPIRITUS in Wisconsin, where she led over thirty high school Confirmation retreats and ran a youth group. She greatly enjoys sharing her love of Christ with others through ministry, and realized that she could better serve others by having more advanced theological training. Angie became a member of the Echo program at the University of Notre Dame, and recently finished her MA in Theology. Through Echo, Angie served as a campus minister at a Newman Center for the University of Utah in Salt Lake City for two years. She is very excited to be joining the staff at the Catholic Center at UGA and can't wait for the start of the school year!
