Beatitudes for Fathers

Blessed is the Dad who makes his peace with spilled milk and with mud, for of such is the kingdom of childhood.

Blessed is the Dad who is confident in his life, secure in his choices and bold in his convictions. He does not obsess over outward appearance and does not compare his life to others. He does not worry about impressing his peers or proving himself.

Blessed is the Dad who has learned laughter, for it is the music of the child's world.

Blessed and mature is the Dad who without anger can say "no", for comforting to the child is the security of firm decisions.

Blessed is the Dad who is so frustrated and at the end of his rope, that He allows God to take over.

Blessed is the Dad who has the gift of consistency, for it is heart's-ease in childhood.

Blessed is the Dad who accepts the awkwardness of growth, for they are aware of the choice between marred furnishings and damaged personalities.

Blessed is the Dad who is teachable, for knowledge brings understanding, and understanding brings love.

Blessed is the Dad who is kind, considerate and shows mercy. Though his hands may be rough they are gentle, and though his words may be stern they are tender. He lives fiercely and loves with reckless abandon. He is most courageous in his unwavering commitment to his family.

Blessed is the Dad who is dealing with the pain of death. The dad who is grieving a wife...a parent...a child...a friend. As he mourns, he will know that he is not forsaken - the God of all comfort will sustain him and strengthen him.

Blessed are the men who in the midst of the unpromising mundane, give love, for they bestow the greatest of all gifts to each other, to their children, and—in an ever-widening circle—to the people of God.

Happy Father's Day!
