

The Catholic Center

“Into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace to this household”

Luke 10

The invitation to take part in the work of the Lord, to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world is extended to us, here and now. Our mission is to bring the peace of Christ wherever we go and to all we meet. No special training or education is needed for the work, as the word of God is, as St. Francis states, waiting to come to” birth in our lives through a holy activity.” All that is required is an effort on our part to allow the goodness of God to shine through our lives. That’s what Jesus calls the seventy-two — and now all of us – to do: “to reveal the presence of God” in every ordinary life, and to do so not with a sense of superiority or self-righteousness but in a spirit of gratitude and humility that we might be the means for God to illuminate and bless the life of another. And, as we work to make a difference in our neighbors’ lives, we make a difference in our own: the peace we work for embraces us and our own families, the justice we seek changes the way we see ourselves and others, the good we are able to make happen, gives our lives a satisfying sense of meaning and purpose. Living in the joy of inclusivity, we are the embodiment of the Gospel vision of humanity as a community of neighbors sharing the same sacred dignity as sons and daughters of the God of all that is good. We can bring such goodness, joy and peace to our own homes and neighborhoods, to our church and our country in our own response to Jesus’ call to work for God’s harvest of reconciliation and justice in the part of the vineyard God has entrusted to us. Peace and all Good!
