SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Catholic Center

Dear Catholic Center Community:

Fr. Brian and I have now been here for over half the month of July. It's been a wonderful time of meeting new people, working with the staff, celebrating Mass and listening to the faith journeys of many of you. Last week both Fr. Brian and I posed the question of looking at what blessing(s) you may have experienced during COVID 19. Even in struggle there are blessings. Thanks to those who have responded to that question. It gives us another insight into your faith journey. The first reading from the Book of Wisdom for this weekend, reminds us that our God is a God of mercy, forgiveness and hope. In the midst of the ups and downs of life, the Lord walks with us, inspires us, nourishes us and reminds us that God's mercy is always greater than any faults we may have. As our Second Reading from Romans tells us: We have the Spirit of God to intercede for us and strengthen us in our weakness. I don't know about you, but I need to hear that "Good News". Blessings in this new week. Continue to walk in the "ways of the Lord." Again, during this challenging time, may your faith life you up! Also, don't forget to bring some joy and hope to those around you. We're all in this together.

Peace in Christ,
Fr. Fred
