

The Catholic Center

Dear Catholic Community of UGA:

Summer seems to be going by fast now. I've noticed more of our college youth around town. It seems they're returning bit by bit. What will the fall look like? Obviously there are many plans underway both at the university and here at the Catholic Center. Whether in person or virtually, all want to make sure they're ready. With the approval of the Finance Committee, we are turning the upstairs apartment into a space for our college young people. It's a great space and will give them more room. Fr. Brian and some of our leaders in the Catholic Student Association spent last weekend painting, redesigning and getting the space ready. I jumped in and helped them. It was fun!!! The room in the main center that the CSA have been using will be converted to a meeting room/classroom. Sister Carmine, who will be new here, will take what was Fr. Casey's office. Fr. Brian and I have been enjoying the rectory front porch. Oftentimes, at night, we sit out there and have a drink. People walk by. They wave and we wave back. Some have stopped to say hi. It's another good way to meet people. You're always welcome, if we're out front, to stop, pull up a chair, social distance and visit for awhile. By the way, the Sisters will be in the office beginning the middle of August.

Remember, keep us in prayer as we do you.

Fr. Fred
