TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Catholic
Center

ATHENS, GA

The Catholic Center

Dear Catholic Community at UGA:

Despite the many challenges of the pandemic, we're blessed here at the Catholic Center. With safety and well-being in mind, we've still been able to experience lots of activity. I'm so impressed with our college young adults. Their faith, energy, enthusiasm and hopefulness in this unusual time brings joy and hope to this catholic community. I'm thankful for each of our the members who care much about the mission of the Catholic Center and contribute generously in time, talent and treasure.

Speaking of mission, in the coming months and year I want us to take a good look at our mission, vision, and plans for the future. It's never just about where we've come from. It's also about where we are going. In time, I will be reaching out to YOU to form a visioning committee and also provide opportunities for discussion and reflection as a community at large. We want to build upon the good experiences of the Catholic Center. You have a rich legacy here based in the Franciscan spirit. Fr. Brian and I bring our own spirit too as Archdiocesan priests. These are not juxtaposed to each other, but rather both spiritualities can work together in complimentary fashion to do Christ's work here at the Catholic Center and UGA.

Blessings to all of you. Fr. Brian and I keep you in prayer. We're blessed too with a great Catholic Community Staff. Keep them in prayer.

In Christ,

Fr. Fred

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Here I Am, Send Me!

Today, on World Mission Sunday, we respond, "Here I Am, Send Me," to our baptismal call to mission, and we offer, at the Eucharistic celebration, our prayers and our generous financial support, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of Jesus. Today we are "sent" out to witness to mission in the world through our prayers and sacrifices for our brothers and sisters around the world.

As little as... $25 helps support a catechist for a month in remote Latin America
 $75 provides for the work of religious Sisters caring for orphaned children in Africa
 $100 assists families in sending their children to schools in Asia

As always, your prayers are your most treasured gift to the Missions. Your prayers and financial help, offered today, WORLD MISSION SUNDAY, support mission priests, religious Sisters and Brothers, and lay catechists who are Christ's witnesses to a world so in need of His healing, love, and peace.
