Dear Catholic Community at UGA:

Blessings in the New Year of 2021. I've been reading a small book called "Christ in the Storm: An Extraordinary Blessing for a Suffering World". It's about Pope Francis' Urbi et Orbi blessing and Eucharistic service that he celebrated on March 27, 2020. Did any of you see this on TV or internet? It was very powerful. There was Pope Francis in front of St. Peter's, basically by himself. I've been in that square many times and it's always been packed. It's true that a picture is worth a thousand words. In the midst of what felt like darkness, fear and hopelessness, was the Holy Father speaking of hope and reminding us that Jesus IS IN THE STORM. He didn't leave us. So has been the year 2020. BUT now, we enter a New Year. It's a year full of promise with all of us hoping that this new year is a better kind of different. So, HAPPY NEW YEAR OF 2021. May it be a year filled with hope, promise and rebirth.

In Christ,

Fr. Fred
