SCRIPTURE READINGS

First Reading: Genesis 18:1-10

When Abraham gave hospitality to three strangers he did not know that he was entertaining God himself, who would reward him with good news.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:24-28

Paul, a minister of the good news of the calling of the Gentiles to salvation, suffers for his converts.

Gospel: Luke 10:38-42

The Gospel contrasts Martha's activity and Mary's quiet devotion to the Lord.

Please mark your calendars for the weekend of August 3-4.

Thank you to the two parishioners who spent many hours researching, meeting with contractors as well as additional time in the hot sun as the work was being done to safeguard the paving of the parking lot went as planned. Their expertise, years of experience and pursuit for excellence were shown in the finished product. Additionally, their wives' willingness to share their partners to ensure a successful outcome for the parish is truly appreciated and should be recognized for their support.

Thank you to Mark Sowinski and Roy McQueen for sinking posts to support our Advent and Christmas signs FAITH, HOPE and JOY. Mark and Roy worked all day to ensure the integrity of their work and that the posts would not interfere with lawn maintenance.

Thank you to John Heine for his assistance with the parish conversion to gas with the installation of the feed line to the boiler and his coordination with Air Pro.

The paving of the parking lot is completed. In addition to a smoother and safer surface with crisp white lines, two additional handicap parking spaces were added. If you use the handicap spaces you are kindly asked to display your handicap parking tag. Thank you!

The parish recently purchased a thurible (censer) and stand, which are used mostly during the Easter and Christmas seasons and for funeral Masses. Please see photo. The thurible (censer) is $250.00 and the stand $400.00. If you are interested in remembering a loved one through offering your donation for one of the items with a gift to the parish, please speak with Fr. Michal. A plaque will be placed in the Book of Memory in the atrium.
