Greetings!

As the obligation of Sundays and Holy Days of obligation are being restored in the Dioceses in the United States, all the activities (live streaming, mailing the bulletin, Communion Service in the parking lot) will cease by the end of June.

We are inviting all the faithful to attend Sunday Masses.

God Bless You!

We have received the new directives from the Archdiocese of New York and our Church will be divided off into two sections, masked and unmasked sections:

Unmasked Section will seat those who are fully vaccinated and comfortable enough not to wear a mask and do not need to keep the distance.

Masked Section will seat those that are not yet vaccinated and those who are vaccinated but do not feel comfortable not to wear a mask, will maintain the six foot distance.

We recommend that families with young children sit in the Masked Section.

Deacon Robert Piloco has requested a leave of absence from his diaconal ministry to attend to some personal matters which has been granted by the Archdiocese of New York. We are grateful for Deacon Robert's ministry in our parish and ask that we all keep him in prayer.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire
to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you
sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As a non-swimmer, I can verify the fear that deep water whipped by storm winds is very real. It is almost contradictory that a storm on the Sea of Galilee, which was notorious for its storms, would strike fear in the hearts of experience-hardened fishermen. But evidently it did. We learn that a water swamped fishing boat easily frightened this chosen crew. It is delightfully ironic that the only Carpenter on the boat would be so unconcerned as to fall asleep. It was a deep sleep, of the kind visited on people with clear consciences like the Lord's. We know for sure that it took a hearty shoulder shake to wake Jesus up. Only to get scolded for His apparent nonchalance. "Don't you care that we are perishing?"

We don't have to imagine what Jesus asked them after He ended the storm. Mark gives it to us. "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Amid this seemingly endless "storm" of the Covid pandemic and all the other "storms" that test our tranquility, Jesus could well ask us the same question, right? As grateful as we should be for the various vaccines, we must believe they are not enough for us and many people to block the "winds of anxiety." Saddest of all reactions has come that of many young people who have ended their "Covid fatigue" with suicide. Crossed off futures just like that. Akin to the lost futures of the millions of aborted babies. We have to bestir our baptismal faith and all its promises. Only the Man who was asleep on the boat can put an end to these and other evils.

Acknowledging today's arrival of the second Father's Day in a row with masked faces and sanitizers still in place, there is a special place of honor for all our fathers. They are the family leaders. Families are the bedrock of the worldwide family of the Church. We know the traditional family is under new and varied attack by segments of our society today. A good, strong, faith-filled Catholic father is a strong antidote to this cultural poison for his spouse and children. Such men have Jesus as their divine support and the Church along side.

As we combine the story of Our Lord's power over storms and His enduring example, with thoughts about the power of a present day good father's example, we can ponder this observation by Clarence Budington Kelland (d.1964) who was an American writer of fiction and short stories and who once described himself as "the best second rate writer in America." I think his praise of his father is first rate. This is what he wrote: "My father didn't tell me how to live. He lived and let me watch him do it."

God love you and give you His peace.

Communion

- ◆ As Catholics, the most important part of practicing our faith is participating in the sacraments and living the sacraments.
- ◆ But due to this pandemic, many of us have not been able to.
- ◆ If you are not comfortable attending Mass at this time and watched it online or television, we will be offering the opportunity to receive the Eucharist this Sunday. This will take place in our Church parking lot from 2:30pm to 3:00pm.
- ◆ Please stay seated in your car with a mask on, and one of the clergy of Sacred Heart will bring you Communion.

Communion distribution in the Church parking lot will continue until the end of June. The last day is Sunday, June 27, 2021.

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions.

Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death.

Amen

Covid-19: A Prayer of Solidarity

For all who have contracted coronavirus,
We pray for care and healing.

For those who are particularly vulnerable,
We pray for safety and protection.

For all who experience fear or anxiety,
We pray for peace of mind and spirit.

For affected families who are facing difficult decisions
between food on the table or public safety,
We pray for policies that recognize their plight.

For those who do not have adequate health insurance,
We pray that no family will face financial burdens alone.

For those who are afraid to access care due to immigration status,
We pray for recognition of the God-given dignity of all.

For our brothers and sisters around the world,
We pray for shared solidarity.

For public officials and decision makers,
We pray for wisdom and guidance.

Father, during this time may your Church be a sign of hope,
comfort and love to all.

Grant peace.
Grant comfort.
Grant healing.
Be with us, Lord.

Amen.

Father's Day Blessing

God our Father,
In your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless these men,
that they may be strengthened as Christian fathers.
Let the example of their faith and love shine forth.
Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
