"150 CLUB" WINNERS

The winners for the December 13 were MaryAnn and Harry Malamas, # 139. The Club ends in late January, so there are still a number of prizes to be won. The continuing cautions against gathering will prevent us from having our usual end-of-club luncheon. For informaton, call Kate, 888-2652.

ATTENDANCE, COLLECTION & EXPENDITURES

The "Bulletin" goes to press early during the holidays to adjust to the company's schedule. The report for the weekend of December 12 & 13 will appear in the "Bulletin" of December 27; December 19 & 20 and Christmas will appear in that of January 3, and so on.

"Ob, Sister, you shouldn't have — I have everything!"

advised against paying into Social Security and then found the retroactive buy-in staggering. Our parish will "tithe" about 3 % of the Offertory to this worthy cause to add to your own generous offering.

CHRISTMAS OFFERING

Keeping the checkbook afloat is a constant balancing act. Moreover, the amounts we pay monthly for Cathedraticum (a fee for services provided by the Archdiocese), pension, liability and medical insurance do not reflect their actual cost. We make "catch-up" payments from the Christmas collection, while continuing to meet the month's-end bills. The parish stocking is hung by the chimney with care, in hopes that your generous donation soon will be there.

FLOWERS

We welcome donations for the decorations we use each Christmas and encourage "memorializing" them. Early in the new year, a list of donors and/or memorials is enclosed in the "Bulletin." No offering is required and any offering in any amount will be received with gratitude. Envelopes are available on the en-tryway tables.

COLLECTION FOR RETIRED RELIGIOUS
