EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

APRIL 1, 2018

Dominica Resurrectionis ~ I. classis

Fr. William Writes: Here is a fine poem by Edmund Spenser (1552-1599, England) which encapsulates the meaning and hope of Easter in more gracious words than I could put together:

*MOST glorious Lord of life, that, on this day,
Didst make Thy triumph over death and sin;
And, having harrow'd hell, didst bring away
Captivity thence captive, us to win:
This joyous day, dear Lord, with joy begin;
And grant that we, for whom thou diddest die,
Being with Thy dear blood clean wash'd from sin,
May live for ever in felicity.
And that Thy love we weighing worthily,
May likewise love Thee for the same again;
And for Thy sake, that all like dear didst buy,
With love may one another entertain.
So let us love, dear Love, like as we ought,
Love is the lesson which the Lord us taught.*

I want to offer my thanks and the thanks of all to Mrs. Albennia Ladieu for her untiring work with flowers, linens, palms, candles, organ music and much more. Thanks to Mike and Susan Jamison for the covering of the statues. Thanks to Mr. John Durrett for the gift of the new Altar Cards for the Extraordinary Form Masses at the High Altar. Thanks to Mark Wakefield and Frank Holley for Sacristy work. I am so proud of the young men who are our servers and I am well aware that many of you have expressed the same sentiments about them. Thanks also to the 11am Mass Choir who sang for the services of the Triduum, adding a dimension of beauty and splendor. God be praised!
