TWENTIETH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
AUGUST 19, 2018

Dominica XIII Post Pentecosten III. Augusti ~ II. classis

A Message from Bishop Spalding:

My Dear People of God,

The horrible details set forth in the recent report of decades of abuse by priests in Pennsylvania serve as a stark reminder that some in the Church have not properly responded to reports of abuse. I am mindful of the courage required for survivors of abuse to bring their stories forward, and I pray that they find healing in God's love.

Their stories express the same pain and anger that led to the creation of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in 2002 and they show that we must remain vigilant in our efforts to provide safe environments in all our parishes, schools, and institutions.

I encourage anyone who suspects that abuse is taking place to make the proper report to civil authorities, and to Church authorities if that abuse involves anyone in service to the Church.

I invite you to review the full details of our broad safe environment program on the diocesan website. There is information about recognizing and reporting any suspected abuse, as well as information about our victims' assistance program in place for survivors of abuse, no matter how long ago that abuse may have taken place.

In all humility, I ask that you join me in prayer for anyone hurting at this time.

Sincerely in Christ,
Most Reverend J. Mark Spalding
Bishop of Nashville

Fr. William Writes: The celebration of our Patronal Feast Day was a wonderful occasion with excellent attendance at both Masses. The social in Buddeke House was truly festive and a great time for people to be together. The presence of our new Bishop was a real joy for us. As the Byzantine Catholics sing "God grant him many happy years". A number of people worked behind the scenes to make the evening the success it was: Albennia Ladieu, Jerilyn Rost, Luke Wilgenbusch, Ted Davis III, Bill and Marilyn Cox, Meredith Pelham, Cassandra Saval and the choir, Robert Nelson and the Altar Servers of whom we are always proud, and the men of Exodus 90 who helped clean up.

Luke Wilgenbusch leaves the Parish at the end of this week. Another priest told me we were getting "the best Seminarian" this summer, but Luke would say we need to meet the rest of our 28 Diocesan Seminarians. His work on the Census was memorable, bringing up our registered households to 420. Luke's daily assistance to me in a 100 ways will be greatly missed. He will be Ordained to the Diaconate by Cardinal DiNardo at the Altar of the Chair in St. Peter's Basilica on September 27th, so next time we see him we can proudly call him "Deacon Luke." God grant him many happy years too!

Dear Parishioners of Assumption,

It's hard to believe that my time at the parish is wrapping up. It has been a truly blessed summer. I would like to thank Fr. William in a particular way for welcoming me to Assumption. He truly made me feel welcome here. I've met many priests during my time in seminary, but Fr. William stands out for his pastoral zeal and love for the liturgy and Tradition of the Church. You really are blessed to have such a great priest.

I'd also like to thank Jerilyn Rost in the church office for her help and friendship this summer. She does an excellent job navigating the unique situation of a historic, urban parish. She often took time out of her busy daily schedule to teach me about the many different facets of parish office life. I will be a better priest because of her.

As in years past, meeting the parishioners has been among the greatest gifts of the summer. When I'm immersed in the books and studies, remembering our time together will give me added strength to stay focused on the Lord and persevere in what He is calling me to. I am certainly grateful for all of the incredible opportunities and experiences that the seminary offers, but all of that is given to me so that I might be a better priest for the people of God here in Nashville, Tennessee. In the best sense, you now form a part of what I call home and what it means to me to be ordained a priest for this diocese. Thank you so much for your prayers and encouragement this summer. Please continue to keep me in your prayers as I am ordained next September in Rome. I look forward to seeing many of you at the priestly ordination in Nashville next summer, as always Deo volente. - Luke Wilgenbusch
