TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY

IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 2, 2018

Dominica XV Post Pentecosten I. Septembris ~ II. classis

Fr. William Writes: This week is Mrs. Jerilyn Rost's last week in the Office, although she will be in and out helping her successor to make the transition. The position encompasses the work of a secretary, but even more, it includes management of the property, accounting, management of events and human resources. Jerilyn set a high standard in the 4 and a half years she served our two Parishes; she will be missed. Fr. Halladay (Administrator of St. Pius X Parish, Bordeaux) and myself, have spent a lot of time this past week reviewing and evaluating several resumes, and then conducting interviews with candidates we felt were the most qualified for the position of Office Manager. On Sunday 16th we will have the opportunity to thank Jerilyn, her husband Craig, and her children for her service here between the two Masses - starting after the 8.30 am Mass

Two important meetings this week: The Oktoberfest Meeting after 6 pm Mass on Tuesday 4th - please try to be there if you are interested in making this event a success for the Parish. On Thursday 6th the Finance Board will be meeting at 7.00 pm.

Finally, a request regarding reception of Holy Communion: it is best for Communicants to look at the Host in a spirit of adoration when receiving. It can be distracting for the minister when communicants try to make eye contact with the priest or other minister, when receiving.

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL UPDATE: ASSUMPTION is exactly where we were last week! We are at getting close at 69% of our $14,600 Goal. Won't you please prayerfully consider donating to this vital ministry of the Diocese of Nashville? We need $4515 to make it happen!

Ladies of Charity: Picture it. Leaves of yellow, orange and red. Hear the joyous sounds from parents sending their children back to school. Imagine the cool crisp air that comes with autumn...or so fables of old tell us. What does all this mean? It means it's time to come inside from the heat, crank up the air and clean your closets! The Ladies of Charity are here to help. We are seeking donations of fall/winter clothing and accessories, in GUC, for the Consignment Shop. With donations, 100% of the sale proceeds go directly to the support of our welfare programs in the community. Donations of clean clothing (on hangers please) and accessories will be accepted Tuesday thru Saturday, at our Shop on 2216 State St, beginning NOW through Tues, September 18th. We are most appreciative. Thank you for support.

Catechism Class continues with Father William this week in Buddeke House All are welcome to attend!

Endowment for the Advancement of Catholic Schools (EACS) Reception (September 18), 6 p.m., Cathedral of the Incarnation, Fleming Center, 2015 West End Ave., Nashville. Loaves and Fishes: Our volunteers are dwindling, and we need your help! Please join us on the 2nd Saturday of every month, Assumption's slated time, at Holy Name Catholic Church to help prepare and serve breakfast to those in our community needing help the most. If you have questions, please contact: Chris Frazier: chrisfrazier@outlook.com.
