TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 9, 2018

Dominica XVI Post Pentecosten II. Septembris ~ II. classis

Fr. William Writes: Friday was Mrs. Jerilyn Rost's last day. She will be working full time as the Coordinator for the Diocesan Office of Vocations and Deacon Formation from Monday. After her first full week she may be able to come to help her successor with organizing the considerable work with managing the Plant and Offices of the two Parishes and all that is involved. I remind you of the opportunity next Sunday 16th September, between the two Masses, to thank Jerilyn, her husband, Craig and their children, for her 4 1/2 years of work here. Jerilyn will be sorely missed.

Next Sunday, you will be able to welcome Mrs. Laura Cooper, a parishioner of Holy Rosary Parish, Donelson, TN. Laura has been working as Office Manager and Administrative Assistant at Lincoya Hills, Baptist Church, right near the Catholic Pastoral Center. Her husband, Charlie, is a deacon at that church. She also brings managerial experience from previous employment in the private sector to Assumption. Please make Laura welcome. She begins here on September 17th. Mrs. Kay Bulzacchelli will cover some of the hours during the work day as far as she is able to, since she works part time in the office at St. Patrick's Church on the South side of Nashville. We will get back to callers if they leave voice mails when the Office here is unattended.

The Parish Finance Board, Ron Westphal (Chair), Rick Fisher - a CPA, Kay Bulzacchelli, Jim Ladieu, and myself, met Thursday night (September 6th) from 7.00pm till around 9.45pm, a long but productive meeting. Jerilyn Rost was also in attendance because as Office Manager, one of her duties has been recording, reporting, and evaluating the Parish financials. In the coming weeks we will have the annual financial report for the Parish. You will be pleased to see that our contributions are up, our expenditures are down, and the state of the Parish finances is sound. God be praised, and thanks to all whose generosity makes this possible!

Friday this week is the beautiful Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (September 14th) and Holy Mass will be provided in both forms of the Rite, in the Extraordinary Form at 12 noon and in English as usual at 6.00pm. Saturday is the Feast of the Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, with the usual Extraordinary Form Latin Mass at 9.00am.

Catholics United for the Arts Next Meeting MONDAY September 17, 2018 7pm. Buddeke House . Rosary, The Seven Sorrows of Mary. Discussion with Fr. Ed Steiner of the Cathedral of the Incarnation Nashville "The Power of Creation". Open to all artists of any type! Please join us in prayer and fellowship to follow meeting!
