TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
OCTOBER 14, 2018

EF: Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost-Second Class

Fr. William Writes:

Though I am writing this Thursday 11th October, by the time you read it Oktoberfest 2018 will be over and done for our Parish. I am staggered by the amount of work Ron Westphal put into this event! He has been here and doing things every day for more than the last week, including putting up the signage at the corner and on the Buddeke House Munroe Street entrance. Speaking of the signage, our special thanks to Tim Templeton for his design and for getting the posters made as well as the advertisement in the Tennessee Register.. There are so many others I will not name for fear of leaving somebody out who should be included: people who did baking, food and drink preparation & servers, token sellers, money counters, set up, and take down afterwards, performers, and church guides. Added to these are the volunteers of the day and of course, everyone from the Parish who attended and brought visitors from among their relatives and friends. The Parish Council meeting on Thursday 18th at 7.00pm is an open meeting (as always) which will evaluate Oktoberfest 2018.

Another Enjoyable Oktoberfest : Thank you to everyone who helped with Oktoberfest. Also thank you to those who attended, we hope to see you again next year. - Church of the Assumption Oktoberfest Committee
