Twenty-Seventh & Last Sunday after Pentecost

NOVEMBER 25, 2018

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNI-

Fr. William Writes:

At the time of writing, due to the closure of the Office for Thanksgiving Break: Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday this Bulletin was prepared on Tuesday 20th. I am hoping that there was a great turnout of Parishioners to help with the Searcy Memorial Thanksgiving Meal. Mrs. Geraldine Searcy and her helpers have been busy from late last week through the weekend and then this week as well. She and they will need a rest after the efforts of Thanksgiving Day, which this year falls on the Memorial of St. Cecilia the Martyr., the Patroness of Music and Musicians. Thanksgiving is always a reminder to give thanks to God for all the gifts we receive from His bounty. Today Tuesday 20th, I had the privilege of celebrating the Funeral Mass for Mr. Frank Holley. What a good and gentle man he was, a servant of the Church which he joined as an adult, the faithful 11am Sunday Mass Sacristan and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. His family and friends, some of them not Catholics, were moved by the unique beauty of our Church and the measured dignity of the Catholic Funeral Liturgy. Frank was a great friend of Monsignor Niedergeses. Frank spoke to me on Sunday 11th November about vacations he had taken with Fr. Bernard and he shed a few tears as he told me how much he would miss his old friend, In the Providence of God, their passing into His divine mercy was to be within but a few days. May God rest their souls!

Volunteers Needed: If you are interested in helping put up the Nativity or any other Christmas decorations, please contact Laura at the church office and have her add your name to the list of volunteers. Angel Tree 11/30 at 10:00am, Nativity & other Christmas decorations 12/23 after the 11:00 mass. Angels will be available for pick up Sunday December 2nd.
