6th Sunday in Ordinary Time - (Ordinary Form)

FEBRUARY 17, 2019

Septuagesima Sunday (Extraordinary Form)

Fr. William Writes

The Pre-Lent Season in the Extraordinary Form Calendar begins today - Septuagesima Sunday. It was common for early Christians to begin the Lenten fast immediately after Septuagesima Sunday. Just as Lent today begins 46 days before Easter, since Sundays are never a day of fasting, so, in the early Church, Saturdays and Thursdays were considered fast-free days. In order to fit in 40 days of fasting before Easter, therefore, the fast had to start two weeks earlier than it does today. In the celebration of the traditional Latin Mass, starting on Septuagesima Sunday, neither the Alleluia nor the Gloria are sung. They do not return until the Easter Vigil when we mark the triumph of Our Lord over death in His Resurrection.

Floor in Fr. Bernard Hall: Flooring near the wall at the opposite end to the kitchen, has been eaten away by termites. While the termites have been eradicated, the flooring needs to be replaced. The Parish Council unanimously encouraged me to proceed with the $5,800.00 repair.

Plumbing in Fr. Bernard Hall: The kitchen sinks are not draining correctly, even after plumbers have made four visits already this year. We are currently seeking estimates to make definitive repairs to the drainage system. The situation is currently as good as it can be until additional costly repairs are approved and carried out.

An Ad Hoc Meeting with SP + Parking will be arranged soon to look at the use of our parking lot. If you are interested in attending such a meeting, let Laura Cooper know at the Office between 8.00am and 4.00pm Monday to Friday.

We were on the News regarding the incursion of noisy chap on Thursday 7th February, during the 6pm Mass. We have a trespassing waiver whereby persons creating problems must leave our properties when instructed to do so; failure to comply is an offense. This measure helps us by giving Police Officers an immediate cause to remove persons who are in any way menacing our congregation or compromising safety. The Police of the Nashville North Precinct came quickly to our assistance on that evening and conducted themselves in an exemplary fashion.

40 Days for Life is coming up, March 6 - April 14 (Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday) - follow this bulletin for information.

Oktoberfest for the last 2 years has been held at a loss to the Parish. We need to decide whether it is to continue or be replaced with some other form of "Homecoming" celebration. Please contact the Office if you are interested and willing to help.
