SAINT PATRICK
Feast Day: March 17th

Only God knows the number of souls in heaven due to the tremendous labors of this great saint. Work was the keynote of his mission – “labor which I had learned from Christ my Lord.” His humility, self-sacrifice, intense love of God, and his wholehearted dedication to the spread of Christ’s kingdom was the secret of his extraordinary success. When his preaching failed to make an impression, his example did. The greatest sermon he ever preached was his own life.

SAINT JOSEPH
Feast Day: March 19th

“Go especially to Saint Joseph for he has great power with God.”

Saint Theresa

If a saint’s greatness is measured by the importance of his God-given role upon earth, none, except for Mary, is greater than Joseph. Protector of Mary and foster-father of the Son of God, he was charged with the responsibility of guidance and the support of the Holy Family. He was so responsible, in a sense, for the education of the Christ-Child. It was his trade Christ learned & his speech Christ imitated. No one ever loved Jesus and Mary as he. His power in heaven stems from this.
