PASTORAL COUNCIL ELECTIONS

It’s time to update membership on the Pastoral Council. As such, we’ll have elections next weekend, Sept. 7th & 8th. The elections will take place just after each Mass at the parish hall. Parishioners 18 years and older may vote, and vote only once. The candidates are listed below. One person will be elected from Category I and one person from Category II. I am grateful to these parishioners for their willingness to assist SJoA in this capacity.

Category I. (Choose one)

1. Kristen Mancil
2. Janessa Ramos
3. Dana Thibodeaux

Category II. (Choose one)

1. Dan Guillory
2. Kurt Fontenot
3. Daryl Granger

Dear Fellow Parishioners of St. Joan of Arc:

It is that time of year again—the Bazaar. The dates are October 26th and 27th. Mark your calendars. As you know the Bazaar helps to defray the cost of insurance which rises every year. We cannot thank you enough for your generosity and hard work and we know that the Church can count on you again this year.

Each year we strive to make our Bazaar bigger and better. On Saturday evening there will be Bingo as usual but we are adding an Arts and Crafts room along with a children's Halloween Costume Contest and the opening of the Silent Auction. There will be jambalaya, snacks, drinks and sweets on sale. The Fun Jump will be open for children and there will be special Bingo games and Trick or Treat bags for them. There may even be music. We encourage everyone—young and old—to open the Bazaar with a BANG by joining us at 5:30 pm on Saturday evening (of Oct. 26th).

Don't stop there. On Sunday the fun begins after the 7:30 Mass with music, food, Fun Jumps, face painting, the Arts and Crafts room, the Silent Auction, the Raffle drawings and Bingo. If you have never attended a traditional Latin Mass plan to go to the 10:30 Extraordinary Form Mass and then join us for all of the above plus the live auction and great fellowship.

Our goal this year is to raise $40,000.00. We cannot do it unless every parishioner does his/her part. We challenge each of you to invite family and friends to come to the Bazaar and participate. Make it a family reunion. Get your grown children to bring their own children to the Church of their youth. St. Joan of Arc was an integral part of their lives and is the heart of this community. We have to preserve our Church not only for us but for future generations of Catholics.

These are the things that we need from you now.

We need items for the silent and live auction, homemade items for the Arts and Crafts room and money to defray expenses. As the date for the Bazaar draws near, we need donations of cold drinks, water, sweets, rick of wood for the barbecue pits, charcoal, and chips.

Also, we need you to help at Bingo, the Silent and Live Auctions, serving food, and ticket sellers. There will be sign up sheets for you to volunteer for the various events outside of Mass today. Pick where you think you best fit and sign up. If you need a few days to consider how you can help, do it and then call the rectory.

Finally, we need you to pick up books of raffle tickets and sell as many as you can. We have great items for raffle this year. The prize for the first raffle is a steer to be butchered in March 2020 and wrapped in accordance with the winner's wishes. The prize for the second raffle is a $200 gift certificate from Foreman's Boudin Kitchen and an Old Smokey barbecue pit. Please check SJoA's Facebook page and website for more information and for pictures of Live Auction items. We encourage you to share these photos with your Facebook friends.

We promise to do our best to make this the best Bazaar ever and we challenge each of you to join us in making it so. Thank you again for your generosity of time, talent and treasure.

We are yours in Christ,

Members of the Bazaar Committee,

Ryan Rozas, chairman
