Directives for the Celebration of Sacraments at This Time

- 1) Beginning a noon on Tuesday, March 17, 2020 all public Masses are suspended.
- 2) All Priests are asked to celebrate daily Mass without a congregation for the assigned intentions of the parish.
- 3) Baptisms are not to be celebrated in a group context. Individual Baptisms may be celebrated with immediate family only.
- 4) Confirmations during this period of suspended public Masses will be rescheduled to a later time.
- 5) The Sacrament of First Holy Communion should be rescheduled as soon as possible when the suspension of public Masses has been lifted.
- 6) Weddings may be celebrated with immediate family only outside of Mass.
- 7) Anointing of the sick and emergency communion calls may only be administered by a Priest. A Deacon may also assist with Communion to the Sick.
- 8) Confessions can be heard behind the screen only.
- 9) Funerals will be at the gravesite only with immediate family. Pastors should schedule a memorial Mass for the deceased at a later date.
- 10) All groups of ten or more persons cannot be encouraged or permitted.
- 11) RCIA candidates and catechumens may be brought into the church at the discretion of the Pastor (when the Pastor deems that they are prepared or at another later date).
- 12) The church building may be left open according to the parish's regular schedule.

These directives are in place until such time as the Suspension of Public Masses is lifted.

Our Lady Star of the Sea, pray for us!

COVID-19 Notebook: Faithful Respond

23 March 2020

Thousands of Facebook followers have been responding positively to the COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic response from the Diocese of Lake Charles. Since the March 16 announcement about the suspension of public Masses, many priests are turning to online Masses as a way to minister to the faithful.

Bishop Glen John Provost televised his private 9:30 a.m. Mass from the Cathedral on Sunday, March 22, the Fourth Sunday of Lent. He was assisted by the Very Reverend Ruben Buller, Vicar General and Master of Ceremonies. The Mass was also streamed live on the diocesan website; on its Facebook page:

Roman Catholic Diocese of Lake Charles @lcdiocese; and on YouTube with the link <https://www.youtube.com/user/Jstarko0329/live>.

Bishop Provost is providing daily meditations called "A Thought from the Bishop's Chapel" that can be viewed on the website and Facebook.
