IN YOUR PRAYERS, please remember Bill Bako, Cyndee Barlow, Pat Coleine, Nancy Doran, Francis Grealis, Byron Mansylla, Loretta Mugno, Joan Murphy, Corazon Natividad, Sr. Betty Obal, Luis Ottobre, Virginia Rodriguez, and John Yuh, who are ill, and for Father Philip Doyle, who has recently died.

Prayer intentions for the sick will be listed for one month and may be renewed by calling the parish office.

WELCOME

If you are a visitor, we welcome you to the Church of Our Saviour and the Chapel of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary and hope that you will come back soon. Those who wish to join the parish may register in the Parish Office, which is located at the Church of Our Saviour.

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY

Intention for Evangelization: Priests and their Pastoral Ministry. That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP

Collections for the week ending 1 July:

Our Saviour: Sunday: $2,417 • Weekdays: $553

Shrines: $836 • Church in Africa: $954

Sacred Hearts: Sunday: $1,113 • Shrines: $353

Church in Africa: $413

WeShare (Our Saviour and Sacred Hearts): $2,029

Parishioners are encouraged to make their donations online through WeShare, which is accessible via our website, <www.oursaviournyc.org>.

Please make all checks payable to the Church of Our Saviour.

To help us meet our expenses, please prayerfully consider a sacrificial offering of twenty dollars for your weekly offering to the parish.

Thank you for your generosity!

SECOND COLLECTIONS

The second collection this Sunday is the monthly collection for the restoration and maintenance of our parish buildings.

Next Sunday, Father Francis Breen, a Maryknoll Missioner with experience in Kenya, will speak at all the Masses and give our parishioners an opportunity to take part in the vital work of bringing Christ's message to all people. The Second Collection next Sunday will be taken up to support this important missionary work.

SAINT BENEDICT – 11 JULY

Born in Norcia, Italy around 480, Benedict completed his first studies in Rome but, disappointed with city life, withdrew to Subiaco, where for about three years he lived in a grotto - the famous “Sacro Speco” – and dedicated himself entirely to God. Making use of the ruins of a cyclopean villa of the Emperor Nero at Subiaco, he built several monasteries together with his first followers. Thus, he brought into being a fraternal community founded on the primacy of love for Christ, in which prayer and work were alternated harmoniously in praise of God.

Some years later, he perfected the form of this project at Monte Cassino and wrote it down in the “Rule”, his only work that has come down to us. Seeking among the ashes of the Roman Empire first of all the Kingdom of God, Benedict perhaps unknowingly scattered the seed of a new civilization that would develop, integrating Christian values with the classical heritage on the one hand, and on the other, the Germanic and Slav cultures.

Today, I would like to emphasize one typical aspect of his spirituality. Benedict, unlike other great monastic missionaries of his time, did not found a monastic institution whose principal aim was the evangelization of the barbarian peoples; he pointed out to his followers the search for God as the fundamental and indeed, one and only aim of life: Quaerere Deum [to seek God].

He knew, however, that when the believer enters into a profound relationship with God, he cannot be content with a mediocre life under the banner of a minimalistic ethic and a superficial religiosity. In this light one can understand better the expression that Benedict borrowed from St. Cyprian and summed up in his Rule (IV, 21), the monks’ program of life: “Nihil amori Christi praeponere”, “Prefer nothing to the love of Christ”. Holiness consists of this, a sound proposal for every Christian that has become a real and urgent pastoral need in our time, when we feel the need to anchor life and history to sound spiritual references.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA – 14 JULY

The daughter of a Mohawk chief and an Algonquin woman, Kateri was orphaned in a smallpox epidemic that left her partly blind and disfigured. She was baptized by a French missionary visiting her village in present-day New York State. Her faith and refusal to marry caused trouble and she fled to an Indian community near Montréal, where she was revered by French and Indians alike for her mystical gifts and kindness. At her canonization in 2012, Pope Benedict XVI prayed, “Saint Kateri, Protectress of Canada and the first Native American saint, we entrust to you the renewal of the faith in the first nations and in all of North America! May God bless the first nations!” The “Lily of the Mohawk” is the patron of Native Americans, refugees, and the disabled.

HELP WANTED

We are in need of a weekend receptionist at the Church of Our Saviour. The person to be considered should have good people skills and be able to work two full days. The person will be responsible for the smooth operation of the Parish Office, setting up for Mass, security of the Sunday collections, the issuance of Mass cards, and supervision of other situations as they arise. If you are interested, please send a résumé to Father Robbins at the Parish Office, 59 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016 or by e-mail <rjr@oursaviournyc.org>. No telephone calls, please.

MASS INTENTIONS

Remembering someone with a Mass intention honors them in a unique way – surrounding them with the warmth of God’s love. A Mass may be offered for the living or deceased, for a birthday, anniversary, for somebody who is ill, or for a special intention. The stipend for a Mass intention is $15. To arrange for a Mass intention, please visit the Parish Office and, on Sundays, at the office at the Chapel of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.
