Bless us and this food which we share with grateful hearts. Continue to make our land fruitful and let our love for you be seen in our pursuit of peace and justice and in our generous response to those in need.

Amen.

HARK! A THRILLING VOICE IS SOUNDING

A few years ago, the Choir of the Church of Our Saviour, under the direction of Paul J. Murray, released a recording, Hark! A Thrilling Voice is Sounding, which features music for Advent and Christmas. The CD recording is available for purchase for $20 (tax included) through our website (credit card) or in person at the Parish Office or the Chapel Office (cash or check). You may also purchase the recording for download on iTunes and Amazon mp3. It is a wonderful gift for family, friends, and co-workers. Make sure that you have a copy in time for the First Sunday of Advent, 2 December.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Choir of the Church of Our Saviour will present its annual Christmas Concert on Wednesday, 19 December at 7:30 p.m. at the Church of Our Saviour. Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased at the Parish Office (cash or check) or online (credit card): <<https://oursaviourchristmas.bpt.me/>>. Tickets are $20 (General Admission). We are very blessed to have one of the finest church choirs in New York City. This concert helps support their ministry to our parish. Please join us and bring friends and neighbors.

HELP WANTED

We are looking to hire a receptionist to work in the Parish Office on Sundays from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 to 7:00 p.m. Duties include answering the door and telephone, cashier duty (Mass cards and candles). Light maintenance and overseeing the security of the church is also required. Given the time commitment required, we are willing to hire a different person for each time shift. If you are interested, please contact Father Robbins by e-mail <rjr@oursaviournyc.org>.

CAMPAIGN FOR CHARITY AND JUSTICE

Thanksgiving is the time of the year when we, as individuals, families, a nation, and faith communities come together to give thanks to the Lord for the many blessings he has given us. It is also the time when we look to give something back to those in need. For over a century, Catholic Charities has been serving all New Yorkers in need by providing a range of services that provide help and create hope for the most vulnerable among us, Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

As part of Catholic Charities' centennial, last year I was pleased to inaugurate the Catholic Charities Campaign for Charity and Justice special collection in our parishes. This was not a new special collection, but a replacement for the annual Catholic Campaign for Human Development special collection. This collection provided an important opportunity to reinforce the engaging acts of charity and justice being done in our parishes which are so essential to living out our Catholic faith. A key feature of this collection is that a significant portion of the funds raised will provide a number of seed grants to archdiocesan parishes and, I am happy to share that, due to your generosity last year, more than twenty-five parishes and community-based works of charity across the archdiocese were able to receive grants to serve our neediest neighbors.

It seems to me to be providential that this special collection is being taken up on the World Day of the Poor. The connection is so clear. Your support of this special collection makes a real difference for people living in poverty across the Archdiocese of New York. Please prayerfully consider how you are able to help the Campaign for Charity and Justice this year. If you would like more information about this special collection and those whom it supports, visit <www.catholiccharitiesny.org/ccj/>.

With gratitude for your generosity and prayerful best wishes to you and your loved ones for a blessed and Happy Thanksgiving, I am

Faithfully in Christ,

Timothy Card. Dolan, Archbishop of New York
