MISSION COOPERATIVE APPEAL

Each year, the Archdiocesan Office for the Society of the Propagation of the Faith sponsors the Missionary Cooperative Appeal. This year our Parish is pleased to welcome a Marist Brother who will speak to us on behalf of the Propagation of the Faith. He will speak to us about the many challenges missionaries face daily which we might take for granted. The second collection at each Mass this Sunday will be sent to the Propagation of the Faith office to support the needs of mission dioceses and religious communities. Evangelization is at the heart of the Church's mission throughout the world and we are grateful for your generosity.

PRAYER FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. Through Christ our Lord.

Thursday, 4 July is INDEPENDENCE DAY. The Parish Office and the Chapel will be closed and only one Mass, 12:05 p.m. at Our Saviour, will be celebrated. The 7:45 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. Masses will not be celebrated.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Evangelist Luke presents to us Jesus, walking to Jerusalem, who meets some men on the road probably young men who promise they will follow him wherever he goes. Jesus proves very demanding with them and warns them that “the Son of Man”, namely, the Messiah, “has nowhere to lay his head” that is to say, he has no permanent dwelling place of his own and that those who choose to work with him in God's field cannot turn back (cf. Lk 9:57-58; 61-62). On the other hand Christ says to someone else: “Follow me”, asking him to sever completely his ties with his family (cf. Lk 9:59-60). These requirements may seem too harsh but in fact they express the newness and absolute priority of the Kingdom of God that is made present in the very Person of Jesus Christ. All things considered, it is a question of that radicalism that is due to the Love of God, whom Jesus himself was the first to obey. Those who give up everything, even themselves, to follow Jesus, enter into a new dimension of freedom that St Paul defines as “walk[ing] by the Spirit” (cf. Gal 5:16). “For freedom Christ has set us free”, the Apostle writes, and he explains that this new form of freedom acquired from Christ consists in being “servants of one another” (Gal 5:1, 13). Freedom and love coincide! On the contrary, complying with one's own egoism leads to rivalry and conflict.

— Benedict XVI, 27 June 2010

SUMMER

While many of our own parishioners travel during the summer months, we have the opportunity to welcome visitors from many lands. Please be mindful that parish expenses continue as usual during the summer and that we rely upon the generosity of parishioners and visitors alike. If you don't do so already, would you consider supporting the parish using WeShare? It will ensure that the parish receives your sacrificial offering throughout the year.

If you are traveling, be sure to incorporate Sunday Mass into your travel plans. The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation is not lifted when we are on vacation.

PROTECTION OF MINORS

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious, or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P. at (212) 371-1000 x2949 or victimassistance@archny.org or Deacon George J. Coppola at (917) 861-1762. Information is also at www.archny.org. In keeping with the Archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

SECOND COLLECTION NEXT SUNDAY

A second collection will be taken up next Sunday, 7 July, the monthly collection for the restoration and maintenance of our parish buildings.

DRESS FOR THE OCCASION

When we accept an invitation to attend a special celebration, we give thoughtful consideration to how we should dress for the occasion. Each Sunday, the Lord extends an invitation to us to a most unique event: the celebration of the Eucharist. We who are brothers and sisters in Christ should always consider how to dress for this extraordinary and sacred occasion.

Remembering someone with a MASS INTENTION honors them in a unique way – surrounding them with the warmth of God's love. A Mass may be offered for the living or deceased, for a birthday, anniversary, for somebody who is ill, or for a special intention. The stipend for a Mass intention is $15. To arrange for a Mass intention, please visit the Parish Office and, on Sundays, at the office at the Chapel.
