@Pontifex: Dear young people, I would like to tell each one of you: God loves you; never doubt it, whatever happens to you in life; under any circumstances, you are infinitely loved.

WELCOME

If you are a visitor, we welcome you to the Church of Our Saviour and the Chapel of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary and hope that you will come back soon. Those who wish to join the parish may register in the Parish Office, which is located at the Church of Our Saviour.

THE HOLY FATHER’S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JULY

The Integrity of Justice. That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

WEEKLY STEWARDSHIP

Due to an early publishing deadline, the collections for the week ending 30 June will be included in next Sunday’s bulletin.

Parishioners are encouraged to make their donations online through WeShare, which is accessible via our website: www.oursaviournyc.org.

Please make all checks payable to the Church of Our Saviour.

To help us meet our expenses, please prayerfully consider a sacrificial offering of twenty dollars for your weekly offering to the parish.

Thank you for your generosity!

SUMMER

While many of our own parishioners travel during the summer months, we have the opportunity to welcome visitors from many lands. Please be mindful that parish expenses continue as usual during the summer and that we rely upon the generosity of parishioners and visitors alike. If you don’t do so already, would you consider supporting the parish using WeShare? It will ensure that the parish receives your sacrificial offering throughout the year.

If you are traveling, be sure to incorporate Sunday Mass into your travel plans. The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation is not lifted when we are on vacation.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Gospel this Sunday (Luke 10:1-12, 17-20) speaks to us about this: the fact that Jesus is not a lone missionary, he does not want to fulfill his mission alone, but involves his disciples. And today we see that in addition to the twelve Apostles he calls another seventy-two, and sends them to the villages, two by two, to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is close at hand. This is very beautiful! Jesus does not want to act alone, he came to bring the love of God into the world and he wants to spread it in the style of communion, in the style of brotherhood. That is why he immediately forms a community of disciples, which is a missionary community. He trains them straight away for the mission, to go forth.

These seventy-two disciples, whom Jesus sent out ahead of him, who were they? Who do they represent? If the Twelve were the Apostles, and also thus represent the Bishops, their successors, these seventy-two could represent the other ordained ministries, priests and deacons; but more broadly we can think of the other ministries in the Church, of catechists, of the lay faithful who engage in parish missions, of those who work with the sick, with different kinds of disadvantaged and marginalized people; but always as missionaries of the Gospel, with the urgency of the Kingdom that is close at hand. Everyone must be a missionary, everyone can hear that call of Jesus and go forth and proclaim the Kingdom!

The Gospel says that those seventy-two came back from their mission full of joy, because they had experienced the power of Christ's Name over evil. Jesus says it: to these disciples He gives the power to defeat the evil one. But he adds: "Do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice that your names are written in heaven" (Luke 10:20). We should not boast as if we were the protagonists: there is only one protagonist, it is the Lord! The Lord's grace is the protagonist! He is the one hero! And our joy is just this: to be his disciples, his friends. May Our Lady help us to be good agents of the Gospel.

— Pope Francis, 7 July 2013

SECOND COLLECTION THIS SUNDAY

A second collection will be taken up this Sunday, the monthly collection for the restoration and maintenance of our parish buildings.

PROTECTION OF MINORS

Anyone who needs to report an alleged incident of sexual abuse of a minor by a priest, deacon, religious, or lay person serving in the Archdiocese of New York is asked to contact Sr. Eileen Clifford, O.P. at (212) 371-1000 x2949 or victimassistance@archny.org or Deacon George J. Coppola at (917) 861-1762. Information is also at www.archny.org. In keeping with the Archdiocesan policy regarding sexual abuse of minors, this information is provided to ensure that our children remain safe and secure.

DRESS FOR THE OCCASION

When we accept an invitation to attend a special celebration, we give thoughtful consideration to how we should dress for the occasion. Each Sunday, the Lord extends an invitation to us to a most unique event: the celebration of the Eucharist. We who are brothers and sisters in Christ should always consider how to dress for this extraordinary and sacred occasion.

Next Sunday's second collection is the annual BLACK AND INDIAN MISSION COLLECTION, which enables the Church in the United States to provide desperately required pastoral, educational, and spiritual assistance to some of the neediest of our brothers and sisters in the Lord. This national collection benefits faith communities throughout the United States, including some in our own Archdiocese. Thank you for your generosity.

Listen to THE CATHOLIC CHANNEL, Ch. 129 on SiriusXM Satellite Radio. Modern talk for today's Catholic, programs include broadcasts of daily Mass from St. Patrick's Cathedral, Conversations with Cardinal Dolan, and Just Love, a program about the work of Catholic Charities hosted by Monsignor Kevin Sullivan. www.siriusxm.com/thecatholicchannel

Remembering someone with a MASS INTENTION honors them in a unique way – surrounding them with the warmth of God's love. A Mass may be offered for the living or deceased, for a birthday, anniversary, for somebody who is ill, or for a special intention. The stipend for a Mass intention is $15. To arrange for a Mass intention, please visit the Parish Office and, on Sundays, at the office at the Chapel.
