“The Hill We Climb” a Poem for America written by Amanda Gorman

When day comes we ask ourselves, where can we find light in this never-ending shade?

The loss we carry,
a sea we must wade We've braved the belly of the beast We've learned that quiet isn't always peace And the norms and notions of what just is

Isn't always just-ice
And yet the dawn is ours before we knew it Somehow we do it Somehow we've weathered and witnessed a nation that isn't broken but simply unfinished

We the successors of a country and a time Where a skinny Black girl descended from slaves and raised by a single mother can dream of becoming president only to find herself reciting for one And yes we are far from polished far from pristine but that doesn't mean we are striving to form a union that is perfect We are striving to forge a union with purpose To compose a country committed to all cultures, colors, characters and conditions of man

And so we lift our gazes not to what stands between us but what stands before us We close the divide because we know, to put our future first,

we must first put our differences aside We lay down our arms so we can reach out our arms to one another

We seek harm to none and harmony for all Let the globe, if nothing else, say this is true:
That even as we grieved, we grew That even as we hurt, we hoped That even as we tired, we tried That we'll forever be tied together, victorious Not because we will never again know defeat but because we will never again sow division Scripture tells us to envision that everyone shall sit under their own vine and fig tree

And no one shall make them afraid
If we're to live up to our own time Then victory won't lie in the blade
But in all the bridges we've made That is the promise to glade
The hill we climb

If only we dare
It's because being American is more than a pride we inherit, it's the past we step into and how we repair it

We've seen a force that would shatter our nation rather than share it Would destroy our country if it meant delaying democracy

And this effort very nearly succeeded But while democracy can be periodically delayed it can never be permanently defeated In this truth in this faith we trust

For while we have our eyes on the future history has its eyes on us
This is the era of just redemption

We feared at its inception We did not feel prepared to be the heirs of such a terrifying hour but within it we found the power to author a new chapter To offer hope and laughter to ourselves So while once we asked, how could we possibly prevail over catastrophe?

Now we assert

How could catastrophe possibly prevail over us?
We will not march back to what was but move to what shall be A country that is bruised but whole, benevolent but bold, fierce and free

We will not be turned around or interrupted by intimidation because we know our inaction and inertia will be the inheritance of the next generation Our blunders become their burdens
But one thing is certain:

If we merge mercy with might,
and might with right, then love becomes our legacy and change our children's birthright So let us leave behind a country better than the one we were left with Every breath from my bronze-pounded chest, we will raise this wounded world into a wondrous one

We will rise from the gold-limbed hills of the west, we will rise from the windswept northeast where our forefathers first realized revolution We will rise from the lake-rimmed cities of the midwestern states,

we will rise from the sunbaked south We will rebuild, reconcile and recover and every known nook of our nation and every corner called our country, our people diverse and beautiful will emerge, battered and beautiful

When day comes we step out of the shade, aflame and unafraid

The new dawn blooms as we free it For there is always light, if only we're brave enough to see it If only we're brave enough to be it

Ash Wednesday 2021
February 17, 2021

Lent begins our conversion journey anew. This year, Ash Wednesday, itself, will be a bit different. We will still have several services on Ash Wednesday centered on the Word of God from Scripture. The imposition of ashes has been modified throughout the whole Catholic Church. After the Scripture is proclaimed, the priest will lead the prayer of blessing for the ashes and peoples' conversion once. Ashes will be distributed to the people by sprinkling the ashes on the head of each person in silence. The prayer continues with the Prayer of the Faithful, Lord's Prayer, and conclusion as usual. Ashes will no longer be imposed on a person's forehead.

Prayer Services with Ashes are:

Wednesday, February 17

9am - St. Patrick's Cambridge

12 noon - Holy Cross, Salem

12 noon - Immaculate Conception

6pm - Immaculate Conception

St. Blaise Day: Blessing of Throats

Wednesday, February 3, 2021

12 noon, in our lower Church

A short prayer service of healing honoring St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr
