Fourth Sunday of Advent

Light the fourth candle on your Advent wreath. In this final week of preparation for the birth of Jesus, reflect on the beauty and fragility of human life that we see in the infant Christ. Even when people are small, weak, defenseless, dependent, demanding or disgusting by worldly standards, God sees beauty. So should we see this beauty in ourselves and in others. Pope Francis recently captured this when he reflected: "Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.

TODAY'S READINGS:
Micah 5:1-4a
Psalm 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19
"Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved."
Hebrews 10:5-10
Luke 1:39-45
