The Lord cannot be outdone in generosity!

“Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.”

- LK 6:26-28

This is standard of the Lord and the standard the Lord asks of His followers, but why? Rightly, this is confusing to us. When dealing with each other this does not seem like the appropriate way to do really anything, which is why so many of us have trouble carrying it into action. This becomes even more difficult to “live up to” when dealing with someone close to us, it’s personal to us. Often the hardest people to love and forgive are those who hurt us the deepest, those closest to us. It’s personal. Why does the Lord ask this of us? Why love our enemies and bless those who curse us and pray for those who mistreat us?

The main reason we struggle with this is because it doesn’t seem fair. This is very true, it is not fair. It is important to recognize that what the Lord is asking of us is something which is unfair. His expectation is not rooted in fairness. So why does He ask this of us, why this standard? This is the standard of the Lord for His followers because this is what His followers have received from Him. When the Lord loves us, though we are sinners, and blesses us, though we curse Him in word and deed, and prays for us, though we mistreat Him through our habitual sin, He does not do this out of a sense of justice or fairness as if we earned His love or blessing or prayers. Lord has freely given these things to us though we did not and do not deserve them. When the Lord asks His followers to do the same to their enemies, He is asking us to bring Him into our encounters with others. He asks us to remember Him and what He has done for us, personally. In short, the Lord is asking us to put into action our gratitude to Him. Gratitude is the key to understanding why the Lord asks anything of us regarding each other. Gratitude is never forgetting what God has done for me freely. I have earned and deserve nothing from God other than the wages of my sin. God in His freedom and love of His creation has chosen to offer me salvation. I can make no return on this gift. The only appropriate gift to God in response to His gift is me is a life converted to Him and a life of gratitude. Gratitude is also the basis of our term tithe. When we are asked to make a tithe offering to God it is generally done as 10% of our income. Traditionally, 5% is to our parish and 5% is to whatever charitable causes we feel the Lord placing on our heart. The key aspect of any tithe is that it is done out of gratitude to God. Always, a tithe is a response for what God has already done for us in our life, undeserved by us. It is no longer a tithe if we have an expectation of future response from the Lord. This is a transaction and not a tithe. You are always welcome to tithe with us, but my main concern is that you tithe. Respond to the Lord’s generosity with generosity in your actions with others. A life lived in gratitude is the best response to what the Lord has done in our life. The Lord will always provide for things that glorify Him and His will. May our standard for dealing with others be the standard the Lord has used for dealing with us!

Join us Fridays at 10AM or Mondays at 6:30PM during Lent to grow in community and faith with other SMDP moms. The devotional starts Ash Wednesday (March 6th) so please contact Niki MacDougall by March 1st for more information about the study, including book purchase and meeting details. “To the End: the story of sacrificial love,” written by Jenna Guizar with co-authors Beth Davis and Nell O’Leary, is your daily companions during our beautiful Lenten season. Through this book, we will dive into the kind of sacrificial love Jesus demonstrates. In this image of bright sorrow—the time of tension between the sorrow of death and the joy of the Resurrection—we will pray with the powerful examples of love Jesus reveals with His life through the Gospel of John, from chapter 11 through chapter 19. This is your personal invitation to dive into Scripture and our beautiful faith alongside the thousands of women in the Blessed is She sisterhood. Open up the Bible, open up your devotional, and listen to what the Lord is saying to you about your own personal story, a story which reflects back His sacrificial love.

“But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend without expecting anything back.”
- Luke 6:35

Easier said than done, right? But, if we are to imitate Christ, most of us need to practice mercy and compassion more frequently. Start with the little daily annoyances that we experience, the unkind word or hateful glance we receive. Instead of plotting revenge on that person, try saying a quick prayer for that person. Mercy and compassion will put us on the path to holiness.
