TODAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE
by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Moses spoke to the people saying, 'Fear the Lord, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you...love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today.'"

The directive of Moses and the conversation of Jesus with the scribe become the measure for our discipleship and Christian lives. Our love of God is expressed in countless ways, beginning with our prayer life, our desire to do good and avoid evil. It is expressed in our love of neighbor, especially in the corporal works of mercy, as we feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, welcome the stranger, care for the sick. The judgment scene of Matthew's gospel tells me quite clearly. Did you ever consider that these recipients of our goodness is the person of Jesus hidden in disguise?

The love of the Lord is not a 'pick and choose' but a willingness to discover Him in others.

UPCOMING CONGRATULATIONS ...

..... to Fr. Tom as he will celebrate his 31st Anniversary of Ordination on Nov. 14th. May God grant him many more healthy and happy years in God's service to the faithful.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah asked a widow for a cup of water and a piece of bread. She told him she was almost out of flour, and that she and her son would soon starve. Elijah told her not to be afraid, as God had told him the jar of flour would not go empty. So she did as he had asked and prepared bread from the last of her flour. As God had said, her jar did not go empty, and she and her son had plenty to eat.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

The high priests entered the sanctuary each year and offered a sacrifice, but not a sacrifice of their own blood. Just as people die once and are judged, Christ was offered up once for the sins of many.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus expressed disgust over the hypocrisy of some of the scribes for wanting special treatment from the people. He watched the wealthy put large contributions into the collection box, but explained that what they gave was surplus wealth, and not a real sacrifice. He told them the biggest donation was a small amount from a widow, because she had given up the only money that she had to live on.

PARISH MINISTRIES

Greatly needed are parishioners who would be interested in joining one of our ministries in the Parish – either at St. Mary's or Our Lady of Mercy Churches.:

Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers are needed to assist our Priest during the Mass with reading God's Word and distribution of the Eucharist. We also have a need for people who would be willing to visit the home bound to bring the Lord to those who are unable to come to Mass because of illness or difficulty getting out of the house.

Music Ministers are always need to provide the music for our liturgies. If you play an instrument or are interested in singing God's praise, won't you consider volunteering.

Altar Servers – both boys and girls are very much needed. If you are in Grade 4 or older and would like to serve, we would love to have you join.
