Last Weekend's Collection

Next Week

Your continuous support and generosity to the Parish both financially and spiritually and all that it does for others is greatly appreciated.

PEACE

The greeting of peace at Mass adds substance to a message of today's readings: peace is relational. When we greet in peace the person near us at Mass, we share the touch of a handshake or embrace, sincere eye contact, and friendly words.

The Scriptures speak of a similar peace. The first reading from Isaiah describes the peace of the holy city, Jerusalem, a place of prosperity and comfort where the "Lord's power shall be known to his servants" (Isaiah 66:14c).

The Christian understanding of peace changes slightly. Paul writes of the "peace and mercy" on all who are created anew. Jesus describes a feeling of peace that will rest on those who accept His Disciples and their message.

Peace is both an absence of strife and a personal blessing. May we always and sincerely bring peace to our own lives as we share it with others.

OUTREACH TO THE POOR

Next weekend is Loaves and Fishes Sunday.
Please be generous.

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL:

Dear Friends in the Lord:

When we are told that the Lord calls each of us to be co-missionaries and co-evangelizers of the Church, as was St. Paul and the other Apostles, we do not often realize how much mission work there is to be done in the United States. There is far more than you or I could ever imagine.

The offering for the Catholic Missions among Black and Indian People, collected in parishes across the nation on July 13-14, enables the Church in the United States to provide desperately required pastoral, educational and spiritual assistance to some of the neediest of our brothers and sisters in the Lord. From the inner cities of the rural south to the deserts of the southwest to the wilderness of Alaska, grants from this annual appeal make it possible for the Church to assist our Black and Indian Catholic communities. Here in the archdiocese, we receive grants twice a year that are applied to parishes in Harlem and the Bronx, making it possible for them to serve their parishioners much more than they could on their own.

With this letter, I invite you to be as generous as you possibly can be in making a sacrificial offering to this crucially important and necessary ministry of the Church.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,
Faithfully in Christ,
+ Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

We want to use this column to give ourselves a much needed review of our religious knowledge. It will be an 'on-going' column and will follow the three year cycle of readings at Mass.

Reading I: Isaiah 66:10-14c
Responsorial Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20
Reading II: Galatians 6:14-18
Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

Remembering

Jesus sent seventy-two disciples out to prepare each town he would visit. He gave his famous instructions about shaking the dust from their feet (Gospel).

Isn't it our duty to go out and spread the good news of the kingdom too? This Sunday we concentrate on that calling. Not a flat duty imposed by guilt or command, but by gratitude. Liturgical spirituality would say that it is in return for the great goodness of God to each of us and all of us.

Remember last week? Jesus was recruiting. He used tough language ("Let the dead bury their dead," etc.), and now he is giving army-like instructions as to how the seventy-two should act when they journey to the towns ("Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals"). Do we find ourselves ready to be sent out when we see, as far back as Good Friday, just how much God is willing to do in order to love us and share our lives?

When someone loves you and stays with you, isn't it normal to respond with gratitude?

What was it that Jesus himself experienced that made him so grateful, that made him act with self-giving and surrender on the cross? We want to know because we are to imitate him.

One answer could be a theoretical one about the Trinity, about Jesus being the Second Person, close as close can be to the Father of love. But on Sunday we will have very earthy images that fill out that answer.

Take a look at the First Reading. It is a beautiful welcome home to a people who had been exiled from Jerusalem, who had hung up their harps because they did not want to sing in captivity.

The Lord tells them to suck fully of the milk of [Jerusalem's] comfort, that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts! ... As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms, and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you.

Maternal images, immediate, utterly compelling. Peace flows from this motherhood of God. Our wild and wooly lives emerge from it and somehow always go back to it.

Jesus had been nurtured at Mary's breast. She was the mother who bore him and loved him and raised him. Through her and with her he was nurtured, and as well, at the breast of the Holy Spirit. His physical self had needs like everyone else, but his divine nature was now fulfilled, at all times, in the tender union that is the Trinity.

When he threw out his arms on the cross he asked the God who suckled him that most terrible of all questions, "Why have you forsaken me?" Even then, even in agony of soul and body, he remembered somehow the love that cradled him. His hope-against-hope let him stay on the cross.

You and me: when we forget the fond love God for our wriggling, snotty, childlike selves, we can still recognize that we knew such love in the past. And that we will know it again. We need to wait and pray, and, yes, suffer.

God is the crux of our lives. God sends us forth gracefully into the world. When someone loves us and stays with us, don't we keep learning to lovingly respond?

John Foley, SJ
