ALL SAINTS DAY + ALL SOULS DAY

Friday November 1 is the Feast of All the Saints - a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses will be held for the vigil on Thursday evening at 7pm and on Friday at 9 am and 12:10 pm. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will take place following the last mass, concluding with Benediction.

On All Souls Day, November 2, the parish mass is at 9 a.m.

Please remember that the memorial mass for all parishioners who went home to God this past year will be on Sunday November 10 at 10 a.m., followed by a reception in the School Hall.

Offering of Altar Bread and Wine

We would like to offer the opportunity to memorialize the bread and wine used at Mass for a specific week. We already have the custom of memorializing the vigil lamp by the Tabernacle. So, we would like to offer the opportunity of memorializing the bread and wine as well.

We request an offering of $25.00. If you are interested, please enclose the following information in an envelope marked "Bread and Wine Offering":

1. The date of the Sunday-Saturday which you are requesting
2. Name of the deceased person who you would like to memorialize
3. Your name and contact number
4. Your offering (cash or check)

You should call the Rectory Office (965-2733) to see if the requested date is available. Once the week is reserved, please either drop this envelope into the Offertory Basket, mail it to the Rectory or drop it off in person.

You may also want to have the Offerings of Bread and Wine for another intention: in gratitude or on the occasion of a birthday, a birth or a special anniversary or date that you would like to remember.

. . WITH SINCERE THANKS AND GRATITUDE . .

FOOD FOR THE POOR, INC.

To the ST. ANTHONY Family:

Food For The Poor wishes to thank you for the welcome you extended to Fr. Roland Dessine on our recent visit to your parish.

We want to use this column to give ourselves a much needed review of our religious knowledge. It will be an 'on-going' column and will follow the three year cycle of readings at Mass.

Reading I: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18
Responsorial Psalm 34:2-3, 17-18, 19, 23
Reading II: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18
Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

The Cry of the Poor

I remember when a certain Jesuit brother died, a most unassuming man. His name was Julius Petrik, always known to us as just Brother Petrik. His funeral Mass took place a few days before the 30th Sunday of Ordinary Time, with the same readings we will hear this Sunday. They were perfect for him. He was 94 years old, and in the very best sense of the word, he was ordinary. He had been a quiet presence ever since I was a very young man in the Jesuits. He did not attract attention. He took pains to avoid it, so it seemed.

In one sense I never knew him, such was his silence. His gentle eyes pointed down, he carried out his tasks without fuss, and—for a long time, maybe always—he ate his meals in a room by himself. I suppose some would just have called him a "character," or would have branded him as pathologically shy.

My intuition said otherwise. I sensed something very holy about Brother. As the years went by I would take care to greet him when I would meet him and he would smile with a wide grin and greet me with real gladness. We would exchange some small talk and then each go back to our tasks. Introversion took second place to the palpable spirit of love within him.

I speak of this good man not to publicize him, something that would be a shock to him, but because my heart is more at ease for my encounters with him. In a word, Brother was a humble man. His prayer surely must have reached God.

He served gladly.

I think such humility is the key to this Sunday's scripture. Listen to what the First Reading says:

The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens.
 The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

Such prayer pierces the clouds and does not rest till it finds its goal! Of course our minds race to power: anyone who can force their prayers through to heaven must be able to get everything he wants. No worries about being weak or unworthy: such a one has command over the Most High God!

At least it is tempting to think that way.

But look closely. The prayer that finds heaven is that of the lowly. Such prayer stays before God's throne not because it is wild and stormy but because it embodies the hushed spirit of truth. It whispers humble needs to the very one who can answer them. It does not have a hidden purpose.

Which of the following two people do you think embodies such lowliness? The Pharisee?

O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity—greedy, dishonest, adulterous—or even like this tax collector;
 I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.

or the Publican?

O God, be merciful to me a sinner.

We know what Jesus thinks. In the Gospel he says, "I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Whatever internal battles Brother Petrik may have faced, I thank God that I was blessed to receive his gracious, shy, unassuming love.

I would love to be like him.
