Memorial Day

Monday, May 25th

REMEMBER THOSE WHO SERVED

ALL GAVE SOME, SOME GAVE ALL

On this Memorial Day, we pray for those who courageously laid down their lives for the cause of freedom. May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with Your strength and peace.

A Message of Hope!

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Many of you have been asking the question: Why would God allow such a pandemic as the coronavirus? I don't believe that God intended for this pandemic. It was not part of His plan. He didn't want sickness and death. When we think about the story of creation, we see that He created a world where there was none. Only because of the evil and the sin that entered and fractured His original goodness is it that death and suffering exist. Some of you may be asking "Well, then, where is God right now in this crisis?" He is present! He is with us through our heroic healthcare workers, police officers, transit workers, our friends at home caring for the sick, our neighbors. He is working through our agencies such as Catholic Charities and ArchCare, and so many agencies of people of good will working day and night to move us forward!

Let us not forget, we can find Him in prayer. Prayer is a meeting with Jesus, a conversation with the Lord. This past Lent we read the story of the woman at the well that had a conversation with Jesus. His Eminence Cardinal Dolan reminded us in his homily that day that Jesus asked the woman for a drink, but more than a physical thirst for water, He was thirsting for her faith and her trust. Likewise He is thirsting for our faith and our trust. During this time of difficulty, will we choose to believe in God's goodness? Will we admit that we need God? Like the woman, He wants to give us eternal life, and He has given us that gift! Will we allow our present situation to be transformed by a meeting with Him? And afterwards, will we share our story of how great He is just like the woman at the well?

Many of us are suffering right now from the effects of this virus, and mourning loved ones that have died. Jesus cries with us. Just as He did when he learned of Lazarus' death, He cried. Lazarus had died, but Jesus brought him back to life. Because of this miracle many came to believe in Him. Jesus can also transform our suffering to glorify God. If we but have faith, He can transform us. Just as Lazarus' sister Martha said to Jesus, "I know whatever you ask of God, God will give you." That's the faith we need. We may be tempted to doubt if the Lord knows what we're going through. Let Him show you His hands and His feet; His wounds. He knows. He bears His wounds and so do we. Pope St. John Paul II wrote on the importance of redemptive suffering - that is - of uniting our suffering to the crucified Jesus in his Salvifici Doloris. Let us contemplate his words during these difficult times:

"Redemption, even though it was completely achieved by Christ's suffering, lives on and in its own special way develops in the history of man. It lives and develops as the body of Christ, the Church, and in this dimension every human suffering, by reason of the loving union with Christ, completes the suffering of Christ. It completes that suffering just as the Church completes the redemptive work of Christ..." "Follow me!" Come! Take part through your suffering in this work of saving the world, a salvation achieved through my suffering! Through my Cross. Gradually, as the individual takes up his cross, spiritually uniting himself to the Cross of Christ, the salvific meaning of suffering is revealed before him. He does not discover this meaning at his own human level, but at the level of the suffering of Christ. At the same time, however, from this level of Christ the salvific meaning of suffering descends to man's level and becomes, in a sense, the individual's personal response. It is then that man finds in his suffering interior peace and even spiritual joy."

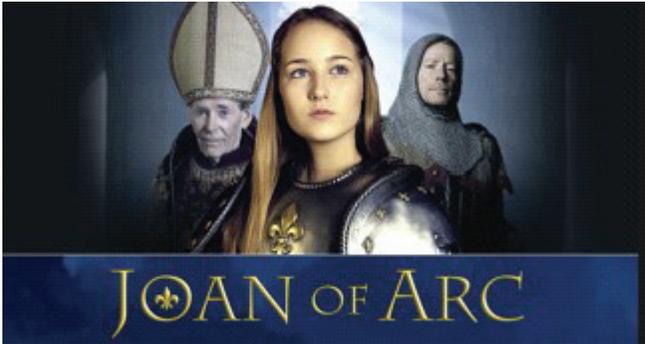

Today we are invited to unite our suffering to Jesus' redemptive suffering, to be transformed! We all have similar crosses to bear, no sports, no in-person birthday parties, no large barbecues, loss of income, perhaps even not being able to mourn the loss of a loved one in a traditional way. During this hardship we each have an opportunity to suffer out of love for each other, fulfilling the second of the greatest commandments, "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." As we take up our crosses and unite in prayer we follow Jesus as He instructed in Matthew 16:24, "...Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

You are all in my prayers, as we suffer together and come ever closer to our Lord.

Christ's peace,

GOOD COUNSEL HOMES FOR SINGLE MOMS

Good Counsel Homes was originally founded to address the needs of homeless, pregnant women in New York in 1985. Four homes are currently operational in the New York Metropolitan Area and in South Jersey.

Since formation, Good Counsel has had 1,219 babies born to resident moms, 15 just this year so far. Our mothers can stay a year or longer after their baby is born. While in residence mothers have earned their GEDs, and graduated from Nursing School, Culinary School, Real Estate School, and Clinical Nursing Programs. Other Moms have attended community and county colleges, and other work related programs while working part time or full time jobs. Staffed 24/7, Good Counsel provides a family like atmosphere with all residents sharing the responsibilities of taking care of the home. Our mothers participate in a Life Skills Program with weekly classes on nutrition, post/pre-natal education, general parenting, chastity, spirituality, finances, job preparedness, and health and computer skills. The goal of all Good Counsel Homes is to help find the residents full time employment, safe and secure housing and to become financially and physically independent while becoming contributing members of society.

If you are interested in contributing to our mission in Pro-life ministry and breaking the cycle of homelessness, please consider becoming a monthly donor by calling 201.795.0637, visit our website www.goodcounselhomes.org.

We want to use this column to give ourselves a much needed review of our religious knowledge. It will be an 'on-going' column and will follow the three year cycle of readings at Mass.

1st Reading ACTS 1:12-14
Responsorial Psalm Psalms 27:1, 4, 7-8
2nd Reading 1 Peter 4:13-16
Gospel John 17:1-11A

In John's Gospel, Jesus gives many instructions to his disciples following the Last Supper they share together. Moments before their time in Gethsemane, Jesus lifts his eyes in a prayer sometimes called the Priestly Prayer. Jesus makes clear in the prayer that he knows his time on earth is coming to an end. He has done the work God sent him to do and in the prayer, Jesus asks God to glorify him. In glory, Jesus will return to God. However, that glory can only come after the cross. The cross exposes what people did to Jesus, but the resurrection reveals what God did for him. It is only through Jesus and his death and resurrection that we can know the love God has for us. Jesus also asked God to strengthen the disciples. Since Jesus would return to the Father, his mission and message must now be entrusted to the disciples. Jesus asks God to protect and unite them.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

As followers of Jesus, we belong to God and will share in Jesus' glory. Think of a way to share that Good News with someone today. Who do you know who may be down or discouraged right now? Maybe you know someone who needs special prayers--pray for them; or send them a note or card for extra encouragement; or do an act of service. Be sure every member of your family is included in this mission.

Discussion Starters

1. I know I am one with Jesus when...
2. Like he promised the disciples, I know Jesus is with me. I knew this for sure when ...
3. One person in my life who is a sign of God's love is . . .
