A PRAYER FOR THE ELIMINATION OF RACISM

Good and gracious God,
Who loves and delights in all people,
we stand in awe before You,
knowing that the spark of life
within each person on earth
is the spark of your divine life.

Differences among cultures and races
are multicolored manifestations of Your Light.

May our hearts and minds be open to celebrate similarities and differences among our sisters and brothers.

We place our hopes for racial harmony
in our committed action
and in Your Presence in our Neighbor.

May all peoples live in Peace.

AMEN

HAPPY FOURTH OF JULY!!!

Archbishop John Carroll was the cousin of Charles Carroll, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. In 1789, Pope Pius VI named him the first bishop of the United States. (He would later become the first archbishop when the Diocese of Baltimore, MD, the mother diocese of the United States, was elevated to the status of archdiocese.) He is also the founder of Georgetown University, in Washington, DC. Archbishop Carroll wrote this prayer November 10, 1791, to be recited in parishes throughout his diocese. It is a good novena to pray as a family or as a parish on national holidays--such as Independence Day and Thanksgiving--and it has special relevance at any time when our government and political consciousness is plagued by division.

We pray, Thee O Almighty and Eternal God! Who through Jesus Christ hast revealed Thy glory to all nations, to preserve the works of Thy mercy, that Thy Church, being spread through the whole world, may continue with unchanging faith in the confession of Thy Name.

We pray Thee, who alone art good and holy, to endow with heavenly knowledge, sincere zeal, and sanctity of life, our chief bishop, Pope Francis, the Vicar of Our Lord Jesus Christ, in the government of his Church; our own bishop, Timothy, all other bishops, prelates, and pastors of the Church; and especially those who are appointed to exercise amongst us the functions of the holy ministry, and conduct Thy people into the ways of salvation.

We pray Thee O God of might, wisdom, and justice! Through whom authority is rightly administered, laws are enacted, and judgment decreed, assist with Thy Holy Spirit of counsel and fortitude the President of these United States, that his administration may be conducted in righteousness, and be eminently useful to Thy people over whom he presides; by encouraging due respect for virtue and religion; by a faithful execution of the laws in justice and mercy; and by restraining vice and immorality. Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge; and may perpetuate to us the blessing of equal liberty.

We pray for his excellency, the governor of this state, for the members of the assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise, to Thy unbounded mercy, all our brethren and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray to Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Thy servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of faith and repose in the sleep of peace; the souls of our parents, relatives, and friends; of those who, when living, were members of this congregation, and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this Church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, Our Lord and Savior.

Amen.

Offering of Altar Bread and Wine

We would like to offer the opportunity to memorialize the bread and wine used at Mass for a specific week. We already have the custom of memorializing the vigil lamp by the Tabernacle. So, we would like to offer the opportunity of memorializing the bread and wine as well.

We request an offering of $25.00. If you are interested, please enclose the following information in an envelope marked "Bread and Wine Offering":

1. The date of the Sunday-Saturday which you are requesting
2. Name of the deceased person who you would like to memorialize
3. Your name and contact number
4. Your offering (cash or check)

You should call the Rectory Office (965-2733) to see if the requested date is available. Once the week is reserved, please either drop this envelope into the Offertory Basket, mail it to the Rectory or drop it off in person.

You may also want to have the Offerings of Bread and Wine for another intention: in gratitude or on the occasion of a birthday, a birth or a special anniversary or date that you would like to remember.

Do Go Gentle

Jesus' words in this week's Gospel are consoling.

Come to me,
all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart,
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

A great comfort, these promises. Whenever death or loss or suffering descend upon us, there is a safe place to go.

But aren't these words hard to trust?

The alternative viewpoint is given by Dylan Thomas, the poet. He was not wiser than Jesus, of course, but he wrote this to his dying father:

Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.

Rage is quite different from rest, isn't it? In the same poet's great poem, "Fern Hill," Thomas says,

Oh as I was young and easy
in the mercy of his means,
Time held me green and dying
Though I sang in my chains like the sea.

Green and dying. Chains. Dylan Thomas was a raggedy man, who, if rumor is true, drank himself to the death he dreaded. He loved his youth and sang glad song to it, but death always stood waiting, and it could not break the chains death wrapped around him. Jesus also said his yoke was easy, but he went through torture and death. How can this be?

If we can begin to let go into the arms of the Great Love, if we can give our life away, we might find rest from our burdens.

Here is an approach. Maybe labor and burdens are not meant to be erased from our lives, not expunged or thrown away. Instead maybe they are meant to be pathways to a solid ground far underneath our troubles, into a quiet grounding where there is real stillness and rest.

What quiet grounding?

Jesus says it is meekness and humility of heart.

In the desert Jesus had already told the devil that the only food Jesus needed was "every word that proceeds from the mouth of God." Maybe the only real goods in life are those rooted firmly in the love that is God, together with meekness and humility, which are Jesus' life. "Watch me," he says. "I am meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass" (First Reading). Here is a paraphrase the rest:

Watch me on the sad height of Calvary and see. I have let it all go—belongings, beloveds, reputation, all. One thing remains. In it I find my rest. Make it your life, whatever your sorrow is, whatever act of living and of dying and being burdened you suffer. It will not be heavy. This is the center of my life and the reason my burden is light.

Love of God, received and given.

If we can begin to let go into the arms of the Great Love, if we can give our life away—as an alternative to raging—we might find rest from our burdens. We might see that death is the ultimate act of giving ourselves away. Jesus did this, in the midst of his burdens. Meek and humble of heart he was, not proud and above it all.

Try it: take your troubles and release them gratefully to the one who can give you rest.

John Foley, SJ

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
